BACKGROUND

19. On 12 May 1992, Momčilo Krajišnik, President of the RS National Assembly executed the following "DECISION ON STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES OF THE SERBIAN PEOPLE IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA," which was published in the Official Gazette of the Republika Srpska on 26 November 1993:

"The strategic objectives or priorities of the Serbian people in Bosnia and Herzegovina are to:

in relevant part

Establish State borders separating the Serbian people from the other two ethnic communities.

Establish a corridor in the Drina River valley, that is, eliminate the Drina as a border separating Serbian States.

20. After armed conflict erupted in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH) in the spring of 1992, Bosnian Serb military and paramilitary forces attacked and occupied cities, towns, and villages, including Bijeljina and Zvornik, in the eastern part of the country and participated in an ethnic cleansing campaign that resulted in an exodus of Bosnian Muslim civilians to enclaves in Srebrenica, Goražde, and Žepa.
21. On 19 November 1992, General Ratko Mladić issued Operational Directive 04. This Directive ordered the Drina Corps, one of the five VRS army corps, to "inflict the heaviest possible losses on the enemy, and force him to leave the Eastern Bosnia areas of Birač, Žepa and Goražde areas together with the Bosnian Muslim population.

22. On 16 April 1993, the Security Council of the United Nations, acting pursuant to Chapter VII of its Charter, adopted Resolution 819, in which it demanded that all parties to the conflict in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina treat Srebrenica and its surroundings as a "safe area," which was to be free from any armed attack or any other hostile act. On 6 May 1993, the Security Council adopted Resolution 824, which declared Srebrenica and Žepa "safe areas."
23. On 4 July 1994, Lieutenant Colonel Slavko Ognjenović, then Commander of the Bratunac Brigade of the Drina Corps, issued a report to all members of the Bratunac Brigade stating in relevant part: "We must continue to arm, train, discipline, and prepare the RS Army for the execution of this crucial task — the expulsion of Muslims from the Srebrenica enclave. There will be no retreat when it comes to the Srebrenica enclave, we must advance. The enemy's life has to be made unbearable and their temporary stay in the enclave impossible so that they leave the enclave en masse as soon as possible, realising that they cannot survive there."
24. On 8 March 1995 President Radovan Karadžić set out in Directive 7 the order to remove the Muslim population from the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves. On 11 and 12 July 1995 the Srebrenica enclave was taken over by VRS and MUP troops and the plan to remove the Muslim population from Srebrenica was implemented, along with the plan to murder all the able bodied men of Srebrenica.
25. By November 1, 1995 the entire Muslim population had been either removed or fled from Srebrenica and Žepa and over 7000 Muslim men and boys from Srebrenica had been murdered by VRS and MUP forces.

- b. On 13 July, at approximately 2130 hours, two Bosnian Muslim men were taken off a truck in Bratunac town, taken to a nearby garage, and summarily executed.

- d. Between the evening of 13 July and the morning of 15 July 1995, Bosnian Muslim males were frequently and consistently killed, both inside and outside the Vuk Karadžić elementary school by VRS and or MUP personnel.

31.3 Kravica Market: During the night between 13 July and 14 July near a supermarket in Kravica, a VRS or MUP soldier placed his rifle barrel into the mouth of a Bosnian Muslim prisoner and summarily executed the man. Also during this period, VRS and/or MUP soldiers struck, beat with rifle butts, and summarily executed Bosnian Muslim prisoners who had surrendered or been captured from the column of men retreating from the Srebrenica enclave or had been separated at Potočari and were detained on trucks near the supermarket.

31.4 Petkovci School: On 14 and the early morning hours of 15 July 1995 VRS and or MUP personnel beat, abused and killed many Bosnian Muslim men being detained in the Petkovci School, just prior to those men being transported to the Dam near Petkovci for summary execution.

Re Burial Operation

- 32. From about 1 August 1995 through about 1 November 1995, VRS and MUP personnel participated in an organised and comprehensive effort to conceal the killings and executions in the Zvornik and Bratunac Brigade zones of responsibility by reburying bodies exhumed from initial mass graves at the following locations: Branjevo Military Farm; Kozluk; the "Dam" near Petkovci; Orahovac; and Glogova; and transferring them to secondary graves at: twelve sites along the Čančari Road (containing bodies from Branjevo Military Farm and Kozluk); four sites near Liplje (containing bodies from the "Dam" near Petkovci); seven sites near Hodžići (containing bodies from Orahovac); and seven sites near Zeleni Jadar (containing bodies from Glogova). This reburial operation was a natural and foreseeable consequence of the execution and original burial plan conceived by the Joint Criminal Enterprise and was done on orders from Ratko Mladić with the knowledge and assistance of VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ AND MILORAD TRBIĆ.

The Destruction of the Women and Children

33. The forcible transfer of the women and children as described in this indictment created conditions known to the accused that would contribute to the destruction of the entire Muslim population of Eastern Bosnia, including but not limited to the failure in part, of the population to live and reproduce normally.

COUNT 1: Genocide, punishable under Articles 4(3)(a) and 7(1) (BOROVČANIN limited to Aiding and Abetting Genocide) and for VINKO PANDUREVIĆ AND LJUBOMIR BOROVČANIN, under Article 7 (3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

By their acts and omissions described in the paragraphs below, ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, AND MILORAD TRBIĆ committed:

34. ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, and MILORAD TRBIĆ entered an agreement with several others, including General Ratko Mladić, the Commander of the VRS, General Milenko Živanović, Commander of the Drina Corps through about 2000 hours on 13 July 1995; General Radislav Krstić, Chief of Staff/Deputy Commander through about 2000 hours on 13 July 1995 and, thereafter, Commander of the Drina Corps and others (see Attachment A for a list of the members of the Conspiracy) to kill the able-bodied Muslim men from Srebrenica that were captured or surrendered after the fall of Srebrenica on 11 July 1995 and remove the remaining Muslim population of Srebrenica and Žepa from the Republika Srpska with the intent to destroy those Muslims. The underlying facts and agreement of the Conspiracy to commit genocide are identical to the facts and agreement identified in Joint Criminal Enterprise mentioned in this Indictment.
35. ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ and MILORAD TRBIĆ entered this agreement with the intent to kill the Muslim men of Srebrenica and to cause serious bodily or mental harm to the Muslims of Srebrenica, and in furtherance of the intent to destroy, in part, a national, ethnical, racial, or religious group, as such.

enclave from 12 July 1995 until about 19 July 1995. The last known primary burial of Srebrenica victims occurred on or about 19 July 1995 in Glogova. The initial plan was to summarily execute more than 1000 Bosnian Muslim men and boys, aged 16 to 60, who were separated from the group of Bosnian Muslims in Potočari on 12 and 13 July. On 12 or 13 July, this plan was broadened to include the summary execution of over 6000 men and boys, aged 16 to 60, who were captured from the column of Bosnian Muslim men escaping the Srebrenica enclave from 12 July through about 1 November 1995. (For the actual execution of the Conspiracy, Joint Criminal Enterprise and Operation, including involvement of the Accused, see paragraphs 27 to 32 and 38 to 44 of this Indictment).

37. Although the Conspiracy, Joint Criminal Enterprise and Operation contemplated organised and systematic executions, it was foreseeable to, ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, MILORAD TRBIĆ AND LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN that individual opportunistic killings and persecutory acts, such as those described in paragraphs 31 and 48 of this Indictment, would be carried out by VRS and MUP forces during and after the Joint Criminal Enterprise. VRS and MUP forces carried out such opportunistic criminal acts from 12 July 1995 to about 1 November 1995. The implementation of this Joint Criminal Enterprise resulted in the summary execution of over 7000 Bosnian Muslim men and boys from the Srebrenica enclave.

49. ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, RADIVOJE MILETIĆ, MILAN GVERO, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, MILORAD TRBIĆ AND LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN, together with other VRS and MUP officers and units and RS officials, as identified in this Indictment in Attachment A, were members of and knowingly participated in a Joint Criminal Enterprise, and Operation, the common purpose of which was to force the Muslim population out of the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves to areas outside the control of the RS from about 8 March 1995 through the end of August 1995.

The Operation to Remove the Muslim Population from Srebrenica and Žepa

50. On 8 March 1995, RS President Radovan Karadžić issued Operational Directive 7 from the Supreme Command of the VRS. Directive 7 was drafted by RADIVOJE MILETIĆ. This Directive ordered “complete the physical separation of the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves as soon as possible, preventing even communication between individuals between the two enclaves. By planned and well-thought-out combat operations, create an unbearable situation of total insecurity, with no hope of further survival or life for the inhabitants of Srebrenica or Žepa.” (See Attachment B to this Indictment for a detailed outline of the structure of the RS Armed Forces relevant to these facts).
51. Continuing in March 1995 through July 1995 the VRS deliberately restricted humanitarian aid and relief supplies to the Muslim inhabitants of Srebrenica and Žepa as part of the organized effort to make life impossible for the Muslims and remove them. RADIVOJE MILETIĆ, under the command of Ratko Mladić played a central role in organizing and facilitating the effort to restrict aid and supplies to the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves.

52. Continuing in March 1995 through the fall of the enclaves in July 1995 the VRS shelled and sniped various civilian targets in the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves, as part of the effort to make life for the Muslims in the enclave impossible and remove them.
53. On 3 June 1995, VRS forces attacked United Nations observation post (OP) Echo as a prelude to the major attack on the enclave. On 2 July 1995, Drina Corps Commander General Milenko Živanović ordered the attack on the Srebrenica enclave with the purpose to separate the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves and reduce the Srebrenica enclave to its urban area. The purpose of reducing the enclave to its urban area was to force the Muslim population into the small town of Srebrenica and thereby create conditions where it would be impossible for the entire Muslim population to sustain itself and require its departure from the area.
54. On or about 6 July 1995, pursuant to General Živanović's order of 2 July 1995, units of the Drina Corps shelled Srebrenica and attacked OPs manned by the UN Dutch Battalion (DutchBat), which were located in the enclave. Among the Drina Corps units engaged in the attack were elements of the Zvornik Brigade commanded personally by VINKO PANDUREVIĆ. On 9 July 1995, President Karadžić modified the original order and approved the takeover of the Srebrenica enclave. The order was transmitted by General ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR to General Radislav Krstić and General MILAN GVERO at the Drina Corps Forward Command Post. The Drina Corps attack on the Srebrenica enclave, including the shelling, and attacks on other UN Ops, and Muslim civilian targets in Srebrenica continued through 11 July 1995, when forces from the Zvornik Brigade, the Bratunac Brigade, the 10th Sabotage Detachment, and other units of the VRS entered Srebrenica. On 11 July 1995, NATO planes dropped bombs in an attempt to stop the VRS. Despite these efforts, Srebrenica fell to the VRS on 11 July 1995.
55. Immediately after the fall of Srebrenica on 11 July 1995, in the late afternoon, senior VRS officers including Ratko Mladić, Milenko Živanović, Radislav Krstić, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, and VUJADIN POPOVIĆ entered the town.
56. On 10 and 11 July thousands of Bosnian Muslims from the enclave, including women, children, and some men, fled to the UN Compound in Potočari, where they sought the protection of the DutchBat. Meanwhile, at the same time, approximately 15,000 Bosnian Muslim men from the enclave, with some women and children, gathered at the villages of Šušnjari and Jaglići and fled on 11 July in a huge column through the woods towards Tuzla. Approximately one third of this group consisted of armed Bosnian Muslim military personnel. The rest were civilians and unarmed military personnel.
57. On the evening of 11 July 1995 and the morning of 12 July 1995, three critical meetings concerning the fate of the refugees who had fled to Potočari took place at the Hotel Fontana in Bratunac. At the first meeting, held at approximately 2000 hours on 11 July, Ratko Mladić, and a Main Staff Intelligence officer, Colonel Radoslav Janković met with other members of the VRS and with the DutchBat command. Ratko Mladić intimidated and threatened the DutchBat commander.

58. Ratko Mladić, Radislav Krstić, Radoslav Janković and other members of the VRS convened the second meeting at approximately 2300 hours on 11 July 1995. Members of the DutchBat command and a representative of the Bosnian Muslim refugees at Potočari attended the meeting. At this second meeting, Ratko Mladić intimidated and threatened the Bosnian Muslim representative. During the evening of 11 July 1995 and into the early morning of 12 July 1995, the plan to transport the Srebrenica Muslims from Potočari was developed by General Mladić and his staff.
59. Ratko Mladić, Radislav Krstić, Radoslav Janković, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ and other VRS and Bosnian Serb civilian representatives convened a third meeting at about 1000 hours on 12 July 1995. DutchBat officers and representatives of the Bosnian Muslim refugees also attended this meeting. At this meeting, it was explained that the VRS would supervise the "evacuation" of refugees from Potočari and that Ratko Mladić wanted to screen men between the ages of 16 and 60 to determine whether there were any war criminals among them.
60. The Bosnian Muslim refugee population remained in and around Potočari from 11 July until 13 July 1995. Throughout this time, members of the VRS and the RS Ministry of Internal Affairs (MUP) terrorised them.

The Operation to Forcibly Move out the Muslim Population

61. In the afternoon of 12 July 1995, in the presence of Ratko Mladić, Radislav Krstić, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN and others, approximately 50 to 60 buses and trucks arrived near the UN military compound in Potočari. At this time and continuing throughout the entire day of 13 July, thousands of Bosnian women, children and elderly men were loaded on busses and trucks and transported by the Bosnian Serb forces from Potočari to the confrontation line near Kladanj, where they were released and walked the approximately 5 kilometres to BiH Army held lines outside Kladanj. MUP Special Police forces under the command of LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN worked together with elements of the Bratunac Brigade and other VRS units in moving the Srebrenica population out of the enclave.
62. On the afternoon of 12 July, as the Bosnian Muslim women, children, and men started to board the buses and trucks, MUP Special Police forces under the command of LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN and VRS soldiers separated over 1000 able bodied Bosnian Muslim men from the women and children and transported these men to temporary detention sites in Bratunac. The separation of able bodied men from the crowd in Potočari continued all day on 12 and 13 July, until the entire Muslim population had been removed from the area of Potočari.
63. Between 12 July 1995 and about 17 July 1995, approximately 6000 Bosnian Muslim men from the column of men escaping the Srebrenica enclave were captured by or surrendered, to MUP forces, under the command of LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN and VRS forces, including the Military Police company of the 65th Protection Regiment of the Main Staff, supervised by LJUBIŠA BEARA, in the Nova Kasaba, Konjević Polje, and Kravica areas. The majority of the prisoners captured from the column on 13 July 1995 were taken to the same temporary detention sites in and around Bratunac as those men separated from Potočari. On 13 July LJUBIŠA BEARA was present in the area of Nova Kasaba co-ordinating the capture and surrender of Muslim men. Those Bosnian Muslim prisoners who were temporarily detained in Bratunac on 12 and 13 July were thereafter transported to the Zvornik area between 13 and 15 July 1995.

64. Beginning around 12 July 1995 and continuing through about 16 July 1995, members of the VRS and the MUP confiscated and destroyed personal property and effects belonging to the Bosnian Muslim male prisoners, including their identification documents and valuables. This confiscation and destruction of personal property and effects occurred in Potočari, at various points of capture and collection of men from the column along the Bratunac/Milići road, and at various execution sites. In addition, the prisoners in Potočari and in Bratunac were not provided with food or medical treatment, nor with any meaningful rations of water, during their days in detention pending execution. During this time, the Muslim prisoners held in Potočari and Bratunac were frequently beaten by their captors.

The Žepa Operation

65. In early July 1995, at the same time as it was attacking Srebrenica, the VRS made preparations to attack the Žepa enclave and force the Muslim population from the that enclave. The VRS began firing on UN positions around Žepa on 7 July 1995. They fired directly on a UN checkpoint on 9 July 1995 and on the town of Žepa on 10 July 1995. On 11 July 1995, the VRS shelled a village at Žepa.
66. Three separate negotiations took place between the VRS and Bosnian Muslim representatives of the Žepa enclave, where VRS representatives sought to force the population to leave the enclave under threat of military attack. The first set of negotiations took place on 13 July 1995. At this meeting, the Rogatica Brigade Commander, Colonel Rajko Kušić, accompanied by General ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR and local Bosnian authorities, met at the established Ukrainian UNPROFOR checkpoint overlooking Žepa. The Bosnian Serbs said that "Srebrenica had fallen and so now it was [Žepa's] turn."
67. ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR offered the Bosnian Muslim representatives of Žepa two alternatives: either the entire population could be "evacuated" in the same manner as Srebrenica or the Bosnian Serbs would take military action. The Bosnian Muslim representatives decided to reject the Serb proposal as it stood. In the early morning of 14 July 1995, the VRS command launched a full scale attack on the Žepa enclave. This attack was commanded by Drina Corps Commander Radislav Krstić and included elements of various Drina Corps brigade including elements of the Zvornik Brigade commanded personally by VINKO PANDUREVIĆ. In the evening of 14 July 1995, Bosnian Serbs entered the pocket from the north-west and retook some land and burned villages. On the morning of 15 July 1995 VINKO PANDUREVIĆ and his troops were withdrawn from the Žepa operation and sent back to the Zvornik area to assist in the defence of Zvornik that had been threatened by the advance of the Muslim men from Srebrenica.
68. On 19 July 1995, the Serb shelling and firing on Žepa stopped. Ratko Mladić met with UNPROFOR General Rupert Smith at Han-Kram. ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR and VRS Colonel Indjić accompanied General Mladić. At the meeting, they discussed Srebrenica, including the withdrawal of DutchBat, the situation at Žepa, and the freedom of movement for UNPROFOR and UNHCR. General Mladić asserted, incorrectly, that Žepa had fallen at 1330 hours that day.

69. The second round of negotiations between the VRS and the Bosnian Muslim representatives of the enclave occurred on the afternoon of 19 July 1995 at the Ukrainian checkpoint. General Mladić and ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR met with three members of the Bosnian Muslim local civil authority. The VRS position required that the Bosnian Muslims were to surrender their arms under the control of the UNPROFOR, and their names would be registered. They were to be held by the Serbs as prisoners of war, until exchanged within 5 to 15 days. General Mladić gave a guarantee of their safety. When the parties reached no agreement, the VRS resumed its attack on Žepa on 21 July 1995.
70. The third set of negotiations took place on 24 July 1995. A Bosnian Muslim representative of the Žepa enclave, Hamdija Torlak, was present, as were General Mladić, Rajko Kušić, the Commanding Officer of the Rogatica Brigade, and ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR. At around 1830 hours on 24 July 1995, an agreement was reached regarding Žepa.
71. The transportation of the women and children of Žepa began on 25 July 1995. On or about the same day, hundreds of mostly able-bodied Muslim men began to flee across the Drina River to Serbia where many of them were registered by the International Committee for the Red Cross (ICRC) and eventually released. The Muslim men fled to Serbia because they feared they would be harmed or killed if they surrendered to the VRS.

The term “opportunistic” is used in this Indictment to describe killings and other criminal acts carried out by individual soldiers, acting on their own, likely without orders from superior officers.

COUNT 7: Inhumane Acts (Forcible Transfer), a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY, punishable under Articles 5(i) and 7(1) and VINKO PANDUREVIĆ and LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN under Article 7 (3), of the Statute of the Tribunal.

By their acts and omissions described in the preceding paragraphs, ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, RADIVOJE MILETIĆ, MILAN GVERO, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, MILORAD TRBIĆ and LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN committed:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

85. At all times relevant to this Amended Indictment, a state of armed conflict existed in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina.
86. At all relevant times, the accused was required to abide by the laws and customs governing the conduct of war.
87. All acts and omissions charged as crimes against humanity were part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against the Bosnian Muslim civilian population of Srebrenica and its surroundings.

INDIVIDUAL CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Article 7 (1) Criminal Responsibility

88. Pursuant to Article 7(1) of the Statute of the Tribunal, ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, RADIVOJE MILETIĆ, MILAN GVERO, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGAN NIKOLIĆ, MILORAD TRBIĆ and LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN are individually responsible for the crimes charged against them in this Indictment. Each of them committed, planned, instigated, ordered, and otherwise aided and abetted in the planning, preparation, and execution of these charged crimes, as set out in detail in this Indictment. The term "committed" as it is used herein, includes two forms of Co-perpetration, namely:

- 88.1 Joint Criminal Enterprise - as described in this Indictment, includes membership of at least two persons in a criminal enterprise with an agreement to achieve the criminal objective, and

- 88.2 Direct and/or Indirect Co-Perpetration - does not require membership in a criminal enterprise or plan, nor an agreement, In Direct/Indirect Co-Perpetration each accused is responsible as a co perpetrator for his participation in the crimes charged, based on his own acts, whether individually or jointly with others, in participating knowingly, with criminal intent, directly and/ or indirectly, with or without an agreement, through or by way of his subordinates or other persons, in the commission of the crimes charged including inter alia, communicating, organizing, co-ordinating, facilitating, or providing supervision or failing to act in furtherance of the crimes charged.
89. Both Joint Criminal Enterprise and Direct/Indirect Co-Perpetration, while representing separate forms of criminal liability, identify the same set of facts, that is the criminal endeavor to force the Muslim population from the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves and murder all the able bodied men captured from the Srebrenica enclave, as described in the Indictment. As used in this Indictment the term “Operation” is used in conjunction with Direct and/or Indirect Co-Perpetration to identify the facts upon which liability under Direct/Indirect Co-Perpetration is based. Joint Criminal Enterprise and Operation are identified separately in this Indictment because the Joint Criminal Enterprise necessarily includes membership in a criminal enterprise and agreement, whereas the facts of the Operation can be viewed without a criminal enterprise and agreement.
90. ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, MILORAD TRBIĆ AND LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN had knowledge of the plan to murder the able bodied Muslim men of Srebrenica and were involved in the execution of that plan., Each accused possessed the criminal intent and state of mind required to commit the individual crimes charged (See Attachment C to this Indictment for the requirement mens rea for each crime) in the Indictment related to this plan, and their acts significantly assisted and facilitated the commission of the crimes. The participation of the accused in the Joint Criminal Enterprise to murder the able-bodied Muslim men of Srebrenica and the specific acts and responsibilities described in this Indictment satisfy the elements required for a finding that, pursuant to Article 7(1) of the Statute of the Tribunal, ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, MILORAD TRBIĆ AND LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN “committed,” “planned,” “instigated,” “ordered,” and otherwise “aided and abetted” genocide, crimes against humanity (including murder, persecutions, forcible transfer, and inhumane acts), and murder as a violation of the laws or customs of war.
91. ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, RADIVOJE MILETIĆ, MILAN GVERO, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, MILORAD TRBIĆ AND LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN had knowledge of and were involved in the implementation of the plan to make life unbearable for the Muslim population of Srebrenica and Žepa and forcibly remove them from the enclaves to areas outside the RS. Each accused possessed the criminal intent and state of mind required to commit the individual crimes charged in the Indictment related to this plan, and their acts significantly assisted and facilitated the commission of the crimes. The participation of the accused in the Joint Criminal Enterprise and Operation to remove the Muslim population and the specific acts and responsibilities described in this Indictment satisfy the elements required for a finding that, pursuant to Article 7(1) of the Statute of the Tribunal, ZDRAVKO TOLIMIR, RADIVOJE MILETIĆ, MILAN GVERO, VINKO PANDUREVIĆ, LJUBIŠA BEARA, VUJADIN POPOVIĆ, DRAGO NIKOLIĆ, MILORAD TRBIĆ AND LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN “committed,” “planned,” “instigated,” “ordered,” and otherwise “aided and abetted”, crimes against humanity (including murder, persecutions, forcible transfer, and inhumane acts), and murder as a violation of the laws or customs of war.

92. As a separate and independent basis of liability under Article 7(1), LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN’S presence at or near mass execution sites described in paragraphs 30.4 and 43(a)(iii) of this Indictment, together with his failure to intercede in order to protect prisoners who remained alive at the execution site, instigated, assisted and aided and abetted the perpetrators of the killings, in that his presence served as encouragement and incitement to the physical perpetrators of the Kravica executions who continued to kill prisoners during and after LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN presence at the site of the executions.

Article 7 (3) Criminal Responsibility

93. VINKO PANDUREVIĆ and LJUBOMIR BOROVIČANIN are also, or alternatively, criminally responsible as Commanders for the acts of their subordinates pursuant to Article 7(3) of the Tribunal Statute. Such criminal responsibility is the responsibility of a superior for the acts of his subordinate if he knew or had reason to know that his subordinate was about to commit such acts or had done so and the superior failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.

Military Structure of the Army of the Republika Srpska ("VRS")

1. The Armed Forces of the Republika Srpska consisted of the Army of the Republika Srpska, and the units of the Ministry of Interior of the Republika Srpska.
2. In July 1995, the Armed Forces of the Republika Srpska were under the command and control of the Commander-in-Chief, Radovan Karadžić. His headquarters was in Pale.
3. Within the framework of the VRS, immediately subordinate to the Commander-in-Chief, was the Main Staff of the VRS, headquartered in Han Pijesak and commanded by General Ratko Mladić. It was the responsibility of the Commander of the Main Staff to issue regulations, orders and instructions regarding the implementation of orders by the Commander-in-Chief, and to discharge the command duties delegated to him by the Commander-in-Chief. The Main Staff of the VRS consisted of staff officers and staff-support personnel, as well as some specialised military units such as: the 65th Protection Regiment, designed to provide protection and combat services for the Main Staff; and the 10th Sabotage Detachment, a unit trained for operations behind enemy lines and other special combat assignments.
4. The vast majority of the fighting force of the VRS itself was divided into six geographically-based Corps, all subordinate to, and under the command of, General Mladić and, in turn, the Commander-in-Chief, Radovan Karadžić. In July 1995, the six Corps was the Drina Corps, the 1st Krajina Corps, the 2nd Krajina Corps, the Sarajevo-Romanija Corps, the Hercegovina Corps and the East Bosnia Corps.
5. Each of the above six Corps had their own individual commander and command staff, all of whom were directly subordinate to General Mladić in the VRS chain of command.
6. Milenko Živanović was appointed the first commander of the Drina Corps when it was formed on 1 November 1992 and served as the Drina Corps Commander until about 2000 hours on 13 July 1995 when he was replaced by General Krstić. General Radislav Krstić was the Commander of the Drina Corps from about 2000 hours on 13 July 1995 through to the end of the war. Prior to his promotion to Commander, General Radislav Krstić was Chief of Staff/Deputy Commander of the Drina Corps, a position he had held since October 1994.
7. The position of Chief of Staff/Deputy Commander of the Main Staff, Drina Corps or any Drina Corps brigade was a concurrent position. In the event that the Commander was absent, incapacitated, or otherwise unavailable to exercise his command functions, the Chief of Staff/Deputy Commander was empowered automatically and without further authorisation to assume and to exercise command authority over subordinate units, within the framework of the Commander's overall intent. In such circumstances, the position of Chief of Staff/Deputy Commander is a position of superior responsibility within the meaning of Article 7(3) of the Tribunal Statute and, in addition, a person holding this position may be criminally liable under Article 7(1) of the Tribunal Statute.

8. The Drina Corps staff was headed by the Chief of Staff, as described in the preceding paragraph. The command staff, headquartered in Vlasenica, had three specialised branch bodies each headed by Assistant Commanders. Those specialised branches were the Corps Security Affairs Branch, the Corps Morale, Legal and Religious Affairs Branch, and the Rear Services (or Logistics) Branch. Along with the specialised branches named above, the Corps staff had approximately ten operative branches responsible for the day-to-day planning, operations and combat functions of the Corps. Those branches included the Operations and Training Department, the Intelligence Department, the Armour and Mechanised Forces Department, the Nuclear, Chemical and Biological Defence Department, the Engineering Department, the Artillery and Missile Department, the Communications Department, the Anti-Aircraft Defence Department, the Personnel Administration Department and the Electronic Security Department.
9. The Drina Corps consisted of approximately 15,000 soldiers organised into thirteen geographically-based subordinate units, which included the 1st Zvornik Infantry Brigade, the 1st Vlasenica Light Infantry Brigade, the 1st Birač Light Infantry Brigade, the 1st Milići Light Infantry Brigade, the 1st Bratunac Light Infantry Brigade, the 2nd Romanija Motorised Brigade, the 1st Podrinje Light Infantry Brigade, the 5th Podrinje Light Infantry Brigade, the 5th Mixed Artillery Regiment, the 5th Military Police Battalion, the 5th Engineer Battalion, the 5th Communications Battalion, and the Skelani Separate Infantry Battalion.
10. Each of the brigades, regiments and battalions mentioned in the preceding paragraph had their own command staff and numerous subordinate units designated as battalions, companies and platoons. The command and troops of the Bratunac and Zvornik Brigades of the Drina Corps played significant roles in the crimes charged herein. The command structure of those brigades is set forth below:

A. 1st Bratunac Light Infantry Brigade

Command Staff

Subordinate Units

1st Infantry Battalion
 2nd Infantry Battalion
 3rd Infantry Battalion
 4th Infantry Battalion
 Reserve Battalion
 Mixed Artillery Battery

Engineer Platoon
 Military Police Platoon
 Intervention Platoon (Red Berets)

B. 1st Zvornik Infantry Brigade

Command Staff

Subordinate Units

1st Infantry Battalion
 2nd Infantry Battalion
 3rd Infantry Battalion
 4th Infantry Battalion
 5th Infantry Battalion
 6th Infantry Battalion
 7th Infantry Battalion
 8th Infantry Battalion
 Reserve Battalion
 Rear Battalion
 Mixed Artillery Battalion
 Armour-Mechanised Company
 Military Police Company
 Light Anti-Aircraft Company
 Engineering Company
 Podrinje Detachment (Drina Wolves)
 Signal Platoon

11. Each brigade staff was headed by the Brigade Chief of Staff/Deputy Commander. The structure and function of the brigade staff was basically the same as the Corps staff, but operated on a smaller scale.
12. With respect to these brigade staffs, one significant difference pertains to the role of the security branch. In a light infantry brigade structure, the role of the Assistant Commander for Security Affairs and Intelligence is combined. In a regular infantry brigade structure, the position of Assistant Commander for Security Affairs and the Chief of Intelligence are separate.
13. In addition to the Bratunac, Zvornik and Vlasenica Brigades, units from the VRS Main Staff, other VRS Corps units, and RS Ministry of Interior "Special Police" and regular municipal police forces were present in the area of responsibility of the Drina Corps during the time frame set forth in the indictment. These units specifically were:
  - (1) Elements of the 65th Protection Regiment (Main Staff VRS)
  - (2) Elements of the 10th Sabotage Detachment (Main Staff VRS)
  - (3) Elements of the RS "Special Police" (Ministry of the Interior)
  - (4) Zvornik Police (Ministry of Interior)
  - (5) Vlasenica Police (Ministry of Interior)
  - (6) Milići Police (Ministry of Interior)
  - (7) Bratunac Police (Ministry of Interior)
  - (8) Skelani Police (Ministry of Interior)
  - (9) Višegrad Police (Ministry of Interior)
  - (10) Rogatica Police (Ministry of Interior)
  - (11) Elements of the 5th Engineering Battalion of the Drina Corps

(12) Elements of the Skorpion unit from Serbia

14. All of the entities referred to in the preceding five paragraphs, except Number 12, the Skorpion unit, were units of the VRS or units of the RS Ministry of Interior, all legally organised and existing under the relevant laws of the RS, and under the command of individuals lawfully appointed under the relevant laws of the RS.
15. The geographic area of the Srebrenica enclave fell entirely within the area of responsibility of the VRS Drina Corps. (See Attachments D and E). Specifically, the Srebrenica enclave was in the territory under the responsibility of the 1st Bratunac Light Infantry Brigade, the 1st Milići Light Infantry Brigade and the Skelani Separate Battalion. Further, all of the criminal acts charged occurred within the area of responsibility of the Drina Corps, principally in the areas of responsibility of the 1st Zvornik Brigade, the 1st Milići Light Infantry Brigade and the 1st Bratunac Light Infantry Brigade.
