I, FAUSTO POCAR, President of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia Since 1991 (“International Tribunal”),

NOTING the “Order Designating the State in which Drago Josipović is to Serve his Prison Sentence”, filed on 18 December 2001, in which the President of the International Tribunal designates Spain as the State in which Drago Josipović is to serve his sentence (“Order”);

CONSIDERING that Drago Josipović was subsequently transferred to Spain and has since been released;

FINDING therefore that the reason for issuing the Order on a confidential basis is no longer applicable;

HEREBY INSTRUCT the Registry of the International Tribunal to lift the confidential status of the Order, and ORDER that the Order shall henceforth be considered a public filing.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.

Done this 9th day of July 2008,
At The Hague,
The Netherlands.
