POSITION OF THE ACCUSED

- 8. At all times relevant to this indictment, MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ held the post of President of Serbia, a post to which he was elected on 21 December 1997. As President of Serbia:
 - i. MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ was the head of State. He represented Serbia and conducted its relations with foreign states and international organisations.
 - ii. MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ was a member of the Supreme Defence Council ("SDC") of the FRY and participated in decisions regarding the use of the VJ. He organised preparations for the defence of Serbia. Under the FRY Law on Defence, MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, as a member of the SDC, also exercised command authority over MUP units subordinated to the VJ during a state of imminent threat of war or a state of war.
 - iii. MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, in conjunction with the Republic of Serbia Assembly, had the authority to request reports both from the Government of Serbia, concerning matters under its jurisdiction, and from the MUP, concerning its activities and the security situation in Serbia.
 - iv. MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ had the authority to dissolve the Republic of Serbia Assembly, and with it the Government, "subject to the proposal of the Government on justified grounds," although this power applied only in peacetime.
 - v. MILAN MILUTINOVIC, during a declared state of war or state of imminent threat of war, could enact measures normally under the competence of the Republic of Serbia Assembly, including the passage of laws; these measures could include the reorganisation of the Government and its ministries, as well as the restriction of certain rights and freedoms.
- 9. At all times relevant to this indictment, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ held the post of Deputy Prime Minister of the FRY. As Deputy Prime Minister of the FRY, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ was a member of the Government of the FRY, which, among other duties and responsibilities, formulated domestic and foreign policy, enforced federal law, directed and coordinated the work of federal ministries, and organised defence preparations.
- 10. In 1998, Slobodan Milošević designated NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ as his representative for Kosovo. In this capacity:

- i. NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ was Head of the Joint Command.
- ii. A number of diplomats and other international officials who needed to speak with a government official regarding events in Kosovo were directed to NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ.
- iii. NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ took an active role in negotiations establishing the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe ("OSCE") verification mission for Kosovo and he participated in numerous other meetings regarding the Kosovo crisis.
- iv. At all times relevant to this indictment, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ acted as the liaison between Slobodan Milošević and various Kosovo Albanian leaders.
- At all times relevant to this indictment, DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ held the 11. post of Chief of General Staff of the VJ, having been appointed on 24 November 1998 by Slobodan Milošević to replace General Momčilo Perišić. As Chief of the General Staff of the VJ:
 - i. DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ commanded, ordered, instructed, regulated and otherwise directed the VJ, pursuant to acts issued by the President of the FRY and as required to command the VJ.
 - ii. DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ determined the organisation, plan of development and formation of commands, units and institutions of the VJ, in conformity with the nature and needs of the VJ and pursuant to acts rendered by the President of the FRY.
 - iii. DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ determined the plan for recruiting and filling vacancies within the VJ and the distribution of recruits therein; issued regulations concerning training of the VJ; determined the educational plan and advanced training of professional and reserve military officers; and performed other tasks stipulated by law.
 - iv. DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ or other officers empowered by him assigned commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers and soldiers, and promoted non-commissioned officers, reserve officers, and officers up to the rank of colonel.
 - v. DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ carried out preparations for the conscription of citizens and mobilisation of the VJ; co-operated with the MUP and the Ministry of Defence of the FRY in mobilising organs and units of the MUP; monitored and proposed measures to correct problems encountered during, and informed the Government of the FRY and the Supreme Defence Council about, the implementation of the mobilisation.
 - vi. DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ, under the FRY Law on Defense, exercised command authority over MUP units as well as over military-territorial units, civil defence units and other armed groups subordinated to the VJ Third Army during a state of imminent threat of war or a state of war. A declaration of imminent threat of war was proclaimed on 23 March 1999, and a state of war on 24 March 1999.

- vii. DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ nominated the president, judges, prosecutors, and their respective deputies and secretaries, to serve on military disciplinary courts.
- On 25 December 1998, NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ was appointed by Presidential Decree as Commander of the Third Army. He took up his duties as Commander of the Third Army on 13 January 1999 and he continued to hold this post at all times relevant to this indictment. As the Commander of the Third Army:
 - NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ commanded all units of the VJ Third Army and units attached to it in the VJ Third Army's area of responsibility. He bore full responsibility for operations conducted by units of the VJ Third Army, units attached to the Third Army, and for the work of the Third Army Command Staff. NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ exercised his authority as VJ Third Army Commander in relation to events in Kosovo from January 1999 to June 1999, inclusive.
- ii. NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ exercised command authority or control over MUP units subordinated to, or operating in co-operation or co-ordination with, the VJ Third Army as well as over military-territorial units, civil defence units and other armed groups, under the FRY Law on Defense, and through joint command and coordination structures and mechanisms.
- 13. VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ was appointed Commander of the Priština Corps of the VJ Third Army in December 1998. He assumed command no later than 6 January 1999 and continued to hold this post at all times relevant to this indictment. As Corps Commander: The state of the state o Stag tracting

- 16. Each of the accused is individually responsible for the crimes alleged against him in this indictment under Articles 3, 5 and 7 of the Statute of the Tribunal.
- 17. The accused planned, instigated, ordered, committed, or otherwise aided and abetted in the planning, preparation, or execution of these crimes. For the modes of liability of planning, instigating or ordering the crimes charged, the accused acted with the awareness of the substantial likelihood that the crimes would be committed in the execution of the plan, order or instigation. For the mode of liability of aiding and abetting, the accused acted with the knowledge that the acts performed would assist in the commission of the crimes.
- 18. By using the word "committed" in this indictment, the Prosecutor does not intend to suggest that any of the accused physically perpetrated any of the crimes charged, personally. "Committing" in this indictment, when used in relation to the accused, refers to participation in a joint criminal enterprise as a co-perpetrator, either directly or indirectly.
- 19. The purpose of this joint criminal enterprise was, inter alia, the modification of the ethnic balance in Kosovo by the expulsion of a substantial portion of the Kosovo Albanian population from Kosovo in order to ensure continued Serbian control over the province. This expulsion was to be achieved through a widespread or systematic campaign of terror and violence including deportations, murders, forcible transfers and persecutions directed at the Kosovo Albanian population during the Indictment period. To fulfil this criminal purpose, each of the accused, acting individually and/or in concert with each other, significantly contributed to the joint criminal enterprise using the de jure and de facto powers available to him.
- This joint criminal enterprise came into existence no later than October 1998 and continued throughout the time period when the crimes alleged in Counts 1 to 5 of this indictment occurred: beginning on or about 1 January 1999 and continuing until 20 June 1999. A number of individuals participated in this joint criminal enterprise during the entire duration of its existence, or, alternatively, at different times during the duration of its existence, including MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ, DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ, NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ, VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ, VLASTIMIR ĐORĐEVIĆ, SRETEN LUKIĆ, Slobodan Milošević and Vlajko Stojiljković. Others members included Radomir Marković, Obrad Stevanović, Dragan Ilić and unidentified persons who were members of command and coordinating bodies and members of the forces of FRY and Serbia who shared the intent to effect the purpose of the joint criminal enterprise. In addition, and/or in the alternative, MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, NIKOLA

ŠAINOVIĆ, DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ, NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ, VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ, VLASTIMIR ĐORĐEVIĆ, SRETEN LUKIĆ, Slobodan Milošević, Vlajko Stojiljković, Radomir Marković, Obrad Stevanović, Dragan Ilić implemented the objectives of the joint criminal enterprise through members of the forces of the FRY and Serbia, whom they controlled, to carry out the crimes charged in this indictment. The phrase "forces of the FRY and Serbia" in this indictment encompasses the following forces and units: VJ, MUP (including special units of the police ("PJP"), special anti-terrorist units ("SAJ"), police reserve units, MUP secretariat ("SUP") personnel, units for special operations ("JSO") and other units of the state security ("RDB")), the Priština military district, military-territorial units, civil defence units, civil protection units, civilian groups armed by the VJ and/or the MUP and formed into village defence units acting under the control and authority of the VJ and/or the MUP.

- 21. The crimes enumerated in Counts 1 to 5 of this Indictment were within the object of the joint criminal enterprise and the accused shared the intent with the other co-perpetrators that these crimes be perpetrated. Alternatively, the crimes enumerated in Counts 3 to 5 were natural and foreseeable consequences of the joint criminal enterprise and the accused were aware that such crimes were the possible consequence of the execution of that enterprise. Despite their awareness of the foreseeable consequences, MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ, DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ, NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ, VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ, VLASTIMIR DORĐEVIĆ and SRETEN LUKIĆ, decided to participate in the joint criminal enterprise. Each of the accused and other participants in the joint criminal enterprise further shared the intent and state of mind required for the commission of each of the crimes charged in counts 1 to 5. On this basis, under Article 7(1) of the Statute, each of the accused bears individual criminal responsibility for the crimes alleged in Counts 1 to 5.
- 22. In the alternative, the accused are also charged as indirect co-perpetrators, based on their joint control over the criminal conduct of forces of the FRY and Serbia. The accused had the mens rea for the specific crimes charged in this indictment, acted with the mutual awareness of the substantial likelihood that crimes would occur as a direct consequence of the pursuit of the common goal, and were aware of the importance of their own roles.
- 23. MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ, DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ, NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ, VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ, VLASTIMIR ĐORĐEVIĆ and SRETEN LUKIĆ, while holding positions of superior authority, are also individually criminally responsible for the acts or omissions of their subordinates, pursuant to Article 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal for the crimes alleged in Counts 1 to 5 of this indictment. A superior is responsible for the criminal acts of his subordinates if he knew on had reason to know that his subordinates were about to commit such acts or had done so, and the superior failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators.

OVERVIEW OF THE JOINT CRIMINAL ENTERPRISE

At all relevant times there existed a functioning chain of command that ensured that command and control ran from the highest levels in Belgrade to the forces of the FRY and Serbia in the field. The sophistication of the command and control structures in place ensured that there was a constant monitoring of the situation on the ground, with prompt responsiveness and continuous contact between superior commanders at the highest level and their subordinates. According to the Constitution and relevant laws and regulations of the FRY the highest authority responsible for strategic matters relating to the defence of the FRY was the SDC which during the indictment period was composed of, inter alia, Slobodan Milošević, MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ and DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ. The SDC had supreme authority over the VJ and other organisations engaged in defence of the country. During the state of war declared on 24 March 1999, the Supreme Command became the highest military-civilian leadership body. It was headed by Slobodan Milošević and included MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ and DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ. It formulated strategy, issued directions and commanded operations by forces of the FRY and Serbia. Members of the SDC, the Supreme Command and the command of the VJ exercised command and control over the MUP and its subordinate units as the relevant FRY law provided that during a state of imminent threat of war (23 March 1999) or state of war (from 24 March 1999 to 26 June 1999) the MUP was subordinated to the VJ when engaged in combat operations.

- 25. Slobodan Milošević, MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ and NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ, also exercised command over the forces of the FRY and Serbia through other bodies including the Joint Command, headed by NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ, which was mandated to co-ordinate the work of civil affairs organs with the activities of the organisations that constituted the forces of the FRY and Serbia in Kosovo and to ensure that they conducted operations in accordance with political objectives. The Joint Command also exercised de facto command authority over these bodies. This command authority complemented the VJ and the MUP internal chains of command to ensure cooperation and co-ordination. The Joint Command included senior members of the civilian, political and military leadership including NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ, the commander of the Third Army, VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ, the commander of Priština Corps, SRETEN LUKIĆ, the Head of the MUP Staff, the Head of the Temporary Executive Committee ("TEC"), and other leaders from the VJ and MUP.
- 26. Forces of the FRY and Serbia, in a deliberate and widespread or systematic manner, forcibly expelled and internally displaced hundreds of thousands of Kosovo Albanians from their homes across the entire province of Kosovo. To facilitate these expulsions and displacements, forces of the FRY and Serbia intentionally created an atmosphere of fear and oppression through the use of force, threats of force, and acts of violence.
- 27. Throughout Kosovo, forces of the FRY and Serbia engaged in a deliberate and widespread or systematic campaign of destruction of property owned by Kosovo Albanian civilians. This was accomplished by the widespread shelling of towns and villages; the burning and destruction of property, including homes, farms, businesses, cultural monuments and religious sites; and the destruction of personal property. As a result of these orchestrated actions, villages, towns, and entire regions were made uninhabitable for Kosovo Albanians.

28. In addition to the deliberate destruction of property owned by Kosovo Albanian civilians, forces of the FRY and Serbia committed widespread or systematic acts of brutality and violence against Kosovo Albanian civilians in order to perpetuate the climate of fear, create chaos and a pervading fear for life. Forces of the FRY and Serbia went from village to village and, in the towns and cities, from area to area, threatening and expelling the Kosovo Albanian population. Kosovo Albanians were frequently intimidated, assaulted or killed in public view to enforce the departure of their families and neighbors. Many Kosovo Albanians who were not directly forcibly expelled from their communities fled as a result of the climate of terror created by the widespread or systematic beatings, harassment, sexual assaults, unlawful arrests, killings, shelling and looting carried out across the province. Forces of the FRY and Serbia persistently subjected Kosovo Albanians to insults, racial slurs, degrading acts and other forms of physical and psychological mistreatment based on their racial, religious, and political identification. All sectors of Kosovo Albanian society were displaced including women, children, the elderly and the infirm.

JANGARA HARANGA MANGALANGA

- Thousands of Kosovo Albanians who fled their homes as a result of the 29. conduct of the forces of the FRY and Serbia and the deliberate climate of terror that pervaded the territory of Kosovo joined convoys of persons that moved toward Kosovo's borders with Albania and Macedonia. Along the routes to the border crossings, forces of the FRY and Serbia manned checkpoints where the displaced Kosovo Albanians were subject to further beatings, extortion, robbery, harassment, assaults, illegal arrests and killings. At other times, forces of the FRY and Serbia escorted groups of expelled Kosovo Albanians to the borders. By these methods, the forces of the FRY and Serbia maintained control over the movement of displaced Kosovo Albanians to the borders. Displaced Kosovo Albanians often arrived at the borders of Kosovo on foot in convoys of several thousand persons, or carried by tractors, trailers and trucks, as well as on trains, buses or trucks which were organised and provided by forces of the FRY and Serbia.
- 30. In addition, thousands of Kosovo Albanians who fled their homes and were thereby forcibly transferred as a result of the conduct of the forces of the FRY and Serbia and the deliberate climate of terror that pervaded the territory of Kosovo, were forced to seek shelter for days, weeks or months in other towns and villages, and/or in forests and mountains throughout the province. Some of these internally displaced persons remained inside the province of Kosovo throughout the time period relevant to this indictment and many persons died as a consequence of the harsh weather conditions, insufficient food, inadequate medical attention and exhaustion. Others eventually crossed over one of the Kosovo borders into Albania, Macedonia, Montenegro, or crossed the provincial boundary between Kosovo and Serbia. Forces of the FRY and Serbia controlled and coordinated the movements of many internally displaced Kosovo Albanians until they were finally expelled from Kosovo. gar fragsfrag filmaga gagaf garasaka.
- 31. Throughout Kosovo, in a deliberate and widespread or systematic effort to deter expelled Kosovo Albanians from returning to their homes, forces of the FRY and Serbia looted and pillaged the personal and commercial property belonging to Kosovo Albanians. Forces of the FRY and Serbia used wholesale searches, threats of force, and acts of violence to rob Kosovo Albanians of money and valuables, and in a widespread or systematic manner, authorities at FRY border posts stole personal vehicles and other property from Kosovo Albanians being deported from the province.
- 32. In addition, throughout Kosovo, forces of the FRY and Serbia systematically seized and destroyed the personal identity documents and licenses of vehicles belonging to Kosovo Albanian civilians. As Kosovo Albanians were forced from their homes and directed towards Kosovo's borders, they were subjected to demands to surrender identity documents at selected points en route to border crossings and at border crossings into Albania and Macedonia. These actions were undertaken in order to erase any record of the deported Kosovo Albanians' presence in Kosovo and to deny them the right to return to their homes.

- 35. The Prosecution re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 and 8.
- 36. MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ acting individually and/or in concert with other members of the joint criminal enterprise, participated in the joint criminal enterprise in, among others, the following ways:
 - a. As a member of the SDC and the Supreme Command and as a participant in other meetings of the highest civilian, VJ and MUP leadership, he commanded, controlled, directed and otherwise exercised effective control over the forces of the FRY and Serbia, which were involved in the perpetration of the crimes charged in this indictment.
 - b. As a member of the SDC and the Supreme Command, and as a participant in other meetings of the highest civilian, VJ and MUP leadership, he participated in the planning, direction, coordination and ordering of the operations and activities of the forces of the FRY and Serbia in Kosovo, which were involved in the perpetration of the crimes charged in this indictment.
 - c. In accordance with instructions from Slobodan Milošević, MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ exercised authority over the VJ and the MUP and was actively engaged in international negotiations.
 - d. As the President of Serbia, he used his decree authority to impose measures to further the crimes charged in Counts 1, 2 and 5.
 - e. He promoted, instigated, facilitated, encouraged and/or condoned the perpetration of crimes during 1998 and during the indictment period as a member of the SDC and the Supreme Command.
 - f. He encouraged and gave legitimacy to crimes committed against Kosovo Albanians by failing to report and/or investigate crimes or alleged crimes against them, to follow up on such allegations and/or investigations, and/or to punish or discipline members of the forces of the FRY and Serbia.
 - g. He participated in the illegal financing of the activities of the VJ and the MUP in Kosovo.
 - h. As a prominent member of the SPS, he enforced policies set by Slobodan Milošević, including by disciplining a senior Serb politician who challenged Slobodan Milošević's policies in Kosovo

FRY and Serbia deliberately created an atmosphere of fear and oppression through the use of force, threats of force and acts of violence, as described above in paragraphs 24-33. Throughout Kosovo, forces of the FRY and Serbia systematically shelled towns and villages, burned homes and farms, damaged and destroyed Kosovo Albanian cultural and religious institutions, murdered Kosovo Albanian civilians and other persons taking no active part in the hostilities, and sexually assaulted Kosovo Albanian women. These actions were undertaken in all areas of Kosovo, and these deliberate means and methods were used throughout the province, including the following municipalities:

- a. Orahovac/Rahovec: On the morning of 25 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia surrounded the village of Celina/Celinë with tanks and armoured vehicles. After shelling the village, forces of the FRY and Serbia entered the village and systematically looted and pillaged everything of value from the houses, set houses and shops on fire and destroyed the old mosque. Most of the Kosovo Albanian villagers had fled to a nearby forest before the army and police arrived. On 28 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia forced the thousands of people hiding in the forest to come out. The men were separated from the women and were beaten, robbed, and all of their identity documents were taken from them. The men were then marched to Prizren and eventually forced to go to Albania.
- On 25 March 1999, a large group of Kosovo Albanians went to a mountain near the village of Nogavac/Nagavc, Orahovac/Rahovec municipality, seeking safety from attacks on nearby villages. Forces of the FRY and Serbia surrounded them and on the following day, ordered the 8,000 people who had sought shelter on the mountain to leave. The Kosovo Albanians were forced to go to a nearby school and then they were forcibly dispersed into nearby villages. After three or four days, forces of the FRY and Serbia entered the villages, went from house to house and ordered people out. Eventually, they were forced back into houses and told not to leave. On 2 April 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia started shelling the villages, killing a number of people who had been sleeping in tractors and cars. Those who survived headed for the Albanian border. When the villagers arrived at the border, all their identification papers were taken from them. In the course of the expulsions, throughout the entire municipality of Orahovac/Rahovec, forces of the FRY and Serbia systematically burned houses, shops, cultural monuments and religious sites belonging to Kosovo Albanians. Several mosques were destroyed, including the mosques of Bela Crkva/Bellacërkvë, Brestovac/Brestovc, Velika Kruša/Krushë e Madhe and others.
- b. Prizren: On 25 March 1999 the village of Pirane was surrounded by forces of the FRY and Serbia, tanks and various military vehicles. The village was shelled and a number of the residents were killed. Thereafter, forces of the FRY and Serbia entered the village and burned the houses of Kosovo Albanians. After the attack, the remaining villagers left Pirane and went to surrounding villages. In the town of Landovica/Landovice, an old mosque was burned and heavily damaged by forces of the FRY and Serbia. Some of the Kosovo Albanians fleeing toward Srbica/Sërbica were killed or wounded by snipers. Forces of the FRY and Serbia then launched an offensive in the Kosovo Albanian villagers were forced from their homes and sent to the Albanian border. From 28 March 1999, in the city of Prizren, forces of the FRY and Serbia went from house to house, ordering Kosovo Albanian residents to leave. They were forced to join convoys of vehicles and persons travelling on foot to the Albanian border. En route, members of the forces of the FRY and Serbia beat and killed Kosovo Albanian men, separated Kosovo Albanian women from the convoy and sexually assaulted the women. - Srbica/Skenderai: Beginning on or about 25 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia attacked and destroyed the villages of Vojnike/Vocnjak, Leocina/Lecine, Kladernica/Klladernicë, Turicevac/Turiçec and Izbica/Izbicë by shelling and burning. Many of the houses, shops and mosques were destroyed, including the mosque in the centre of the village of Cirez/Qirez. Some women and children were taken away by members of the forces of the FRY and Serbia and held in a barn in Cirez/Qirez. The women were subjected to sexual assault, and their money and property were stolen. At least eight of the women were killed after being sexually assaulted, and their bodies were thrown into three wells in the village of Cirez/Oirez. On or about 28 March 1999, at least 4,500 Kosovo Albanians from these villages gathered in the village of Izbica/Izbicë where members of the forces of the FRY and Serbia demanded money from these Kosovo Albanians and separated the men from the women and children. A large number of the men were then killed. The women and children were forcibly moved as a group towards Klina/Klinë, Dakovica/Gjakovë and eventually to the Albanian border.

- Suva Reka/Suharekë: On the morning of 25 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia surrounded the town of Suva Reka/Suharekë. During the following days, police officers went from house to house, threatening, assaulting and killing Kosovo Albanian residents, and removing many of the people from their homes at gunpoint. Many houses and shops belonging to Kosovo Albanians were set on fire and a mosque in Suva Reka/Suharekë was damaged. The women, children and elderly were sent away by the police and then a number of the men were killed by the forces of the FRY and Serbia. The Kosovo Albanians were forced to flee, making their way in trucks, tractors and trailers towards the border with Albania. Outside Prizren, the Kosovo Albanians were forced to get off the buses and trucks and walk approximately 15 kilometres to the Albanian border where, prior to crossing the border, they were ordered to turn their identification papers over to forces of the FRY and Serbia.

Some houses were set on fire, forcing the residents to flee to other parts of the town. At least one of the mosques of the town was burned and damaged. Over a three-week period the forces of the FRY and Serbia continued to expel the Kosovo Albanian residents of the town. During this period, properties belonging to Kosovo Albanians were destroyed, Kosovo Albanians were robbed of money, vehicles, and other valuables, and Kosovo Albanian women were sexually assaulted. A similar pattern was repeated in other villages in the Kosovska Mitrovica/Mitrovice municipality, where forces of the FRY and Serbia forced Kosovo Albanians from their homes and destroyed the villages. The Kosovo Albanian residents of the municipality were forced to join convoys going to the Albanian border via the towns of Srbica/Skenderai, Peć/Pejë, Dakovica/Gjakovë and Prizren. En route to the border, forces of the FRY and Serbia officers robbed them of valuables and seized their identity documents.
- Priština/Prishtinë: Beginning on or about 24 March 1999 and continuing through the end of May 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia went to the homes of Kosovo Albanians in the city of Priština/Prishtinë and forced the residents to leave. During the course of these forced expulsions, a number of people were killed. Many of those forced from their homes went directly to the train station, while others sought shelter in nearby neighbourhoods. Hundreds of ethnic Albanians, guided by Serb police at all the intersections, gathered at the train station and then were loaded onto overcrowded trains or buses. Those on the trains went as far as Deneral Janković/Hani i Elezit, a village near the Macedonian border. On the way to the border many people had their identification papers taken from them. After getting off the trains, forces of the FRY and Serbia told the Kosovo Albanians to walk along the tracks into Macedonia since the surrounding land had been mined. Those who tried to hide in Pristina/Prishtine were eventually expelled in a similar fashion. During the course of these forced expulsions, a number of people were killed and several women were sexually assaulted.

- Dakovica/Gjakovë: By March 1999, the population of the town of h. Đakovica/Gjakovë had increased significantly due to the large number of internally displaced persons who fled their villages to escape deliberate shelling by forces of the FRY and Serbia during 1998, and to escape the armed conflict between these forces and members of the Kosovo Liberation Army. The continual movement of these internally displaced persons increased after 24 1999 when, following violent expulsions in the town of Đakovica/Gjakovë, many internally displaced persons returned from the town of Dakovica/Gjakovë to the outlying villages, only to be expelled from these villages again by forces of the FRY and Serbia. Those forces controlled and coordinated the movement of these internally displaced persons as they travelled from these villages to and from the town of Dakovica/Gjakovë, and finally to the border between Kosovo and the Republic of Albania. Persons travelling on foot were sent from the town of Đakovica/Gjakovë directly toward one of several border crossings. Persons travelling in motor vehicles were routed first towards the town of Prizren before approaching the border and crossing into the Republic of Albania.
- From on or about 24 March 1999 through 11 May 1999, forces of the (i) FRY and Serbia began forcing residents of the town of Dakovica/Gjakovë to leave. Forces of the FRY and Serbia spread out through the town and went from house to house ordering Kosovo Albanians from their homes. In some instances, people were killed, and many persons were threatened with death. Many of the houses and shops belonging to Kosovo Albanians were set on fire, while those belonging to Serbs were protected. On 24 March 1999, the old mosque in Rogovo/Rogovë and the old historic quarter of Dakovica/Gjakovë, which included the bazaar, the Hadum Mosque and adjoining Islamic Library, were among the several cultural sites substantially and/or totally destroyed. During the period from 2 to 4 April 1999, thousands of Kosovo Albanians living in the town of Dakovica/Gjakovë and neighbouring villages joined a large convoy, either on foot or driving in cars, trucks and tractors, and moved to the border with Albania. Forces of the FRY and Serbia directed those fleeing along pre-arranged routes, and at checkpoints along the way most Kosovo Albanians had their identification papers and license plates seized. In some instances, Yugoslav army trucks were used to transport persons to the border with Albania. The cold be in the second of the second was a second
- (ii) In addition, during late March and April 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia forcibly expelled the Kosovo Albanian residents of many villages in the Dakovica/Gjakovë municipality, including the villages of Dobroš/Dobrosh, Korenica/Korenicë and Meja/Mejë. Many of these residents were subsequently ordered or permitted to return to their communities, only to be expelled again by forces of the FRY and Serbia. the FRY and Serbia launched a massive attack against the Carragojs, Erenik and Trava Valleys (Đakovica/Gjakovë municipality), including the remaining residents of the aforementioned villages, in order to drive the population out of the area. A large number of soldiers and policemen were deployed, and several checkpoints were established. In Meja/Mejë, Korenica/Korenicë and Meja Orize/ Orize, a large, and as yet undetermined, number of Kosovo Albanian civilian males were separated from the mass of fleeing villagers, abducted and executed. Throughout the entire day, villagers under direct threat from the forces of the FRY and Serbia left their homes and joined several convoys of refugees using tractors, horse carts and cars and eventually crossed into Albania. Forces of the FRY and Serbia confiscated the identity documents of many of the Kosovo Albanians before they crossed the border.

- Gnjilane/Gjilan: Forces of the FRY and Serbia entered the town of Prilepnica/Përlepnicë on or about 6 April 1999, and ordered residents to leave. The townspeople left and tried to go to another village but forces of the FRY Serbia turned them back. On 13 April 1999, residents of Prilepnica/Përlepnicë were again informed that the town had to be evacuated by the following day. The next morning, Kosovo Albanians left in a convoy of approximately 500 vehicles. Shortly after they left, the houses in Prilepnica/Përlepnicë were set on fire by forces of the FRY and Serbia. Throughout the entire municipality of Gnilane/Gilan, forces of the FRY and Serbia systematically burned and destroyed houses, shops, cultural monuments and religious sites belonging to Kosovo Albanians, including a mosque in Vlaštica/Vlastica. Kosovo Albanians in other villages in Gnjilane/Gjilan municipality were also forced from their homes. Thousands of displaced persons from villages such as Žegra/Zhegër, Nosalje/Nosalë Vladovo/Lladovë sought shelter in the village of Donja Stubla/Stubëlle E Poshtme, located in the Vitina municipality. Many of these displaced persons from Gnjlane/Gjilan crossed Kosovo's boundary with the province of Serbia, where some of them suffered similar harassment and mistreatment to that which they experienced in Kosovo, before entering Macedonia. travelled directly to Macedonia. Uroševac/Ferizaj: During the period between 24 March and 14 April 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia shelled and attacked villages in the Uroševac/Ferizaj municipality, including Biba/Bibe, Muhadžer Prelez/Prelez i Muhaxherëve, Raka/Rakaj and Staro Selo, killing a number of residents. After the shelling, forces of the FRY and Serbia entered some of the villages, including Papaz and Sojevo/Sojevë, and ordered the residents to leave. Other Kosovo Albanians from Varoš Selo/Varosh and Mirosavlje/Mirosalë fled their villages as the Serb forces entered. After the residents left their homes, the soldiers and policemen burned the houses. The displaced persons went to the town of Uroševac/Ferizaj, where most boarded trains which carried them to the Macedonia border crossing at Deneral Jankovic/Hani i Elezit. Serb forces directed the train passengers to walk on the railroad tracks to the border. Others travelled in convoys from Uroševac/Ferizaj to the same border crossing. At the border, Serb forces confiscated their identity documents.

- (i) On or about 8 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia attacked and partially burned the village of Kotlina/Kotlinë. On 24 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia attacked Kotlina/Kotlinë again with heavy weapons systems and soldiers. Many of the male residents of Kotlina/Kotlinë fled into nearby forests during this attack, while forces of the FRY and Serbia ordered the women, children and elderly to board trucks which took them towards the town of Kačanik/ Kaçanik. Those who could not fit into the trucks were compelled to walk behind them towards Kačanik/Kaçanik. A number of male residents of Kotlina/Kotlinë were killed during this attack, including at least 17 men whose bodies were thrown into wells. Before departing Kotlina/Kotlinë, forces of the FRY and Serbia burned the remainder of the village. Many of the survivors fled to Macedonia.
- (ii) On or about 27 and 28 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia attacked the town of Kačanik/Kaçanik. Forces of the FRY and Serbia harassed, detained, beat, and shot many Kosovo Albanian residents of Kačanik/Kaçanik. Thousands of persons fled to nearby forests and eventually walked across the border into Macedonia. Other displaced persons from the town of Kačanik/Kaçanik and nearby villages walked to the village of Stagovo/Stagovë, where they boarded trains that took them to the Macedonia border.
- (iii) On or about 13 April 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia surrounded the village of Slatina/Sllatinë and the hamlet of Vata. After shelling the village, infantry troops and police entered the village and looted and burnt the houses. During this action, 13 civilians were shot and killed. Following this attack, much of the population of Slatina/Sllatinë fled to Macedonia.
- (iv) On or about 25 May 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia attacked the village of Dubrava/Lisnaje in the municipality of Kačanik/Kaçanik. During the attack, forces of the FRY and Serbia killed several Kosovo Albanian residents of Dubrava/Lisnaje. Many residents of Dubrava/Lisnaje formed a convoy of tractors and trailers and fled to Macedonia. Other residents fled to other villages or into forests before eventually crossing the border into Macedonia.
- l. Dečani/Deçan: On or about 29 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia surrounded and attacked the village of Beleg, and other surrounding villages in the Dečani/Deçan municipality. Forces of the FRY and Serbia went from house to house and told villagers to leave their houses immediately. These forces then looted and burned the houses. Several men, women and children were moved out of their homes and gathered in a nearby field in the village of Beleg. Forces of the FRY and Serbia ordered all men and women to Cecelija/Ceceli and Gornia Sudimlia/Studime e Epërme. The villagers were forced out of their homes, and many of their houses, shops and religious sites were completely burnt. The villagers, as well as persons previously displaced from other communities in the Vučitrn/Vushtrri municipality, were forced to form a convoy of approximately 20,000 people travelling on the "Studime Gorge" road, in the direction of the town of Vučitrn/Vushtrri. During the night of 2-3 May 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia harassed, beat and killed approximately 104 Kosovo Albanians and robbed the valuables of many others. Thousands of Kosovo Albanians in this convoy were detained by forces of the FRY and Serbia in the agricultural cooperative near the town of Vučitrn/Vushtrri. On or about 3 May 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia at the agricultural cooperative separated Kosovo Albanian men of military age from women, children and the elderly. The Kosovo Albanian women, children and elderly were directed to travel to Albania and a number of Kosovo Albanian men were forced to drive vehicles that carried the women, children and elderly to the Albanian border. The forces of the FRY and Serbia transported hundreds of Kosovo Albanian men of military age from the agricultural cooperative to a prison in the village of Smrekovrica/Smrakoncë. After several weeks of detention in inhumane conditions where they were subjected to beatings, torture and murder, many of these Kosovo Albanian men were transported to the village of Zur/Zhur, near the Albanian border, and forced to cross the border into Albania. - 76. Beginning on or about 1 January 1999 and continuing until 20 June 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia, acting at the direction, with the encouragement, or with the support of MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ, DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ, NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ, VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ, VLASTIMIR ĐORĐEVIĆ and SRETEN LUKIĆ murdered hundreds of Kosovo Albanian civilians and other persons taking no active part in the hostilities. These killings occurred in a widespread or systematic manner throughout the province of Kosovo and resulted in the deaths of numerous men, women, and children. Included among the incidents of mass killings are the following:

 - a. On or about 15 January 1999, in the early morning hours, the village of Račak/Reçak (Štimlje/Shtime municipality) was attacked by forces of the FRY and Serbia. After shelling, the forces of the FRY and Serbia entered the village later in the morning and began conducting house-to-house searches. Villagers, who attempted to flee from the forces of the FRY and Serbia, were shot throughout the village. A group of approximately 25 men attempted to hide in a building, but were discovered by the forces of the FRY and Serbia. They were beaten and then were removed to a nearby hill, where they were shot and killed. Altogether, the forces of the FRY and Serbia killed approximately 45 Kosovo Albanians in and around Račak/Reçak. (Those persons killed who are known by name are set forth in Schedule A, which is attached as an appendix to this indictment.)

Many of the residents of Bela Crkva/Bellacërkë fled along the Belaja River outside the village and were forced to seek shelter near a railroad bridge. As the forces of the FRY and Serbia approached the bridge, they opened fire on a number of villagers, killing 12 persons including 10 women and children. A two-year old child survived this incident. The forces of the FRY and Serbia then ordered the remaining villagers out of the streambed, at which time the men and older boys were separated from the elderly men, women and small children. The forces of the FRY and Serbia ordered the men and older boys to strip and then systematically robbed them of all valuables. The women and children were then ordered to leave towards an adjacent village called Zrze/Xërxë. A doctor from Bela Crkva/Bellacërkë attempted to speak with a commander of the attacking forces, but he was shot and killed, as was his nephew. The remaining men and older boys were then ordered back into the streambed. After they complied, the forces of the FRY and Serbia opened fire on these men and older boys, killing approximately 65 Kosovo Albanians. - On or about 25 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia attacked the villages of Mala Kruša/Krusë e Vogël and Velika Kruša/Krushë e Mahde (Orahovac/Rahovec municipality). The villagers of Mala Kruša/Krusë e Vogel took refuge in a forested area outside Mala Kruša/Krusë e Vogel, where they were able to observe the forces of the FRY and Serbia systematically looting and burning their houses. The villagers subsequently took refuge in the house of Sedje Batusha, which is located on the outskirts of Mala Kruša/Krusë e Vogel. During the morning of 26 March 1999, forces of the FRY and Serbia located the villagers. The forces of the FRY and Serbia ordered the women and small children to leave the area and go to Albania. The forces of the FRY and Serbia detained and searched the men and boys and confiscated their identity documents and valuables. Subsequently, the forces of the FRY and Serbia ordered the men and boys, under threat of death, to walk to an unoccupied house in Mala Kruša/Krusë e Vogel. The forces of the FRY and Serbia forced the men and boys to enter the house. When the men and boys were assembled inside, the forces of the FRY and Serbia opened fire with machine guns on the group. After several minutes of gunfire, the forces of the FRY and Serbia set fire to the house in order to burn the bodies. As a result of the shooting and fire, approximately 105 Kosovo Albanian men and boys died. (Those persons killed who are known by name are set forth in Schedule C, which is attached as an appendix to this indictment.)
- On or about 26 March 1999, in the morning hours, forces of the FRY d: and Serbia surrounded the vicinity of the BERISHA family compound in the town of Suva Reka/Suharekë (Suva Reka/ Suharekë municipality). Tanks were positioned close to, and pointing in the direction of, the houses. The forces of the FRY and Serbia ordered the occupants out of one of the houses. Men were separated from women and children and six members of the family were killed. The remaining family members were herded towards a coffee shop by forces of the FRY and Serbia. Those family members were herded. along with three extended BERISHA family groups, into the coffee shop. Forces of the FRY and Serbia then opened fire on the persons inside. Explosives were also thrown into the shop. At least 44 civilians were killed and others seriously wounded during this action. The bodies of the victims were placed in the rear of a truck, which was then driven in the direction of Prizren. Three injured persons, thrown in among the dead bodies, jumped out of the truck en route to Prizren. Human remains of the BERISHA killings have since been recovered at two locations; the first at a firing range site in Prizren municipality and the second being a mass grave site at the SAJ training centre at Batajnica, near Belgrade, Serbia. (Those persons killed who are known by name are set forth in Schedule D, which is attached as an appendix to this indictment.)

- Beginning on or about 1 January 1999 and continuing until 20 June 1999, the forces of the FRY and Serbia, acting at the direction, with the encouragement, or the support of MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ, DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ, NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ, VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ, VLASTIMIR ĐORĐEVIĆ and SRETEN LUKIĆ, utilised the means and methods set forth in paragraphs 26 through 33 to execute a campaign of persecution against the Kosovo Albanian population, including Kosovo Albanian civilians based on political, racial, or religious grounds. Each of the accused intended that the campaign target the Kosovo Albanian population on political, racial or religious grounds as is evident from, among other things, the overwhelming predominance of Kosovo Albanians of Muslim faith among the victims of crimes and the widespread use of terms derogatory to Kosovo. These persecutions included, but were not limited to, the following means:

- and the second of the second o The forcible transfer and deportation by forces of the FRY and Serbia of approximately 800,000 Kosovo Albanian civilians as described in paragraphs 26-33.

 - The wanton destruction or damage of Kosovo Albanian religious sites. d. During and after the attacks on the towns and villages, forces of FRY and Serbia systematically damaged and destroyed cultural monuments and Muslim sacred sites. Mosques were shelled, burned and dynamited throughout the province. Included among the incidents are the following: the damage and/or destruction of mosques in Vucitrn/Vushtrii, Suva Reka/Suharekë, Celina/Celinë, Rogovo/Rogovë, Bela Crkva/Bellacërke, Cirez/Qirez, Kotlina/Kotlinë, Ivaja/Ivajë, Brestovac/Brestovc, Velika Kruša/Krushë e Mahde, Kosovska Mitrivica/Mitrovicë, Vlaštica/Vlastica, Landovica/Landovice and Dakovica/Gjakovë, as described in paragraph 73.

By these acts and omissions, MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ, DRAGOLJUB OJDANIĆ, NEBOJŠA PAVKOVIĆ, VLADIMIR LAZAREVIĆ, VLASTIMIR DORDEVIĆ, SRETEN LUKIĆ, planned, instigated, ordered, committed or otherwise aided and abetted the planning, preparation or execution of:

BACKGROUND AND CONTEXT FOR THE ALLEGATIONS

81. Kosovo is located in the southern part of the Republic of Serbia, a constituent republic of Serbia and Montenegro ("SCG"). The territory now comprising SCG was part of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia ("SFRY"). Kosovo is bordered on the north and north-west by the Republic of Montenegro, on the south-west by the Republic of Albania ("Albania"), and to the south by the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia ("Macedonia"). The capital of Kosovo is Priština/Prishtinë.

In the 1981 census, the last census with near universal participation, the total population of Kosovo was approximately 1,585,000 of which 77% were Albanians and 13% were Serbs. Kosovo Albanians boycotted the census administered in 1991, but general estimates about the population during the period relevant to this indictment suggest that it was approximately 85-90% Kosovo Albanian and 5-10% Serb.

- In 1974, a new SFRY Constitution provided for a devolution of power 83. from the central government to the six constituent republics of the country. Within Serbia. Kosovo and Vojvodina were given considerable autonomy including control of their educational systems, judiciary, and police. They were represented in the Assembly, the Constitutional Court, and the Presidency of the SFRY.
- During the 1980s, Serbs voiced concern about discrimination against them by the Kosovo Albanian-led provincial government while Kosovo Albanians expressed concern about economic underdevelopment and called for greater political liberalisation and republican status for Kosovo. From 1981 onwards, Kosovo Albanians staged demonstrations which were suppressed by SFRY military and police forces of Serbia.
- On 24 April 1987, Slobodan Milošević, who had been elected Chairman of 85. the Presidium of the Central Committee of the League of Communists of Serbia in 1986, travelled to Kosovo. In meetings with local Serb leaders and in a speech before a crowd of Serbs, Slobodan Milošević endorsed a Serbian nationalist agenda. Thereafter, Slobodan Milošević exploited a growing wave of Serbian nationalism in order to strengthen centralised rule in the SFRY.
- 86. In early 1989, the SFRY government launched a process aimed at stripping Kosovo of the autonomy it had gained under the 1974 constitution. Due to the political unrest, in February 1989, the SFRY Presidency declared that the situation in Kosovo had deteriorated and had become a threat to the constitution, integrity, and sovereignty of the country and imposed "special measures" reassigning responsibility for public security from the provincial government of Kosovo to the government of the SFRY. This, prompted massive demonstrations by Kosovo Albanians.
- In July 1990, the Assembly of Serbia passed a decision suspending the Assembly of Kosovo shortly after 114 of the 123 Kosovo Albanian delegates from that Assembly passed an unofficial resolution declaring Kosovo an equal and independent entity within the SFRY. In September 1990, many of these same Kosovo Albanian delegates proclaimed a constitution for a "Republic of Kosovo." One year later, in September 1991, Kosovo Albanians held an unofficial referendum in which they voted overwhelmingly for independence. On 24 May 1992, Kosovo Albanians held unofficial elections for an assembly and president for the "Republic of Kosoyo."
- Slobodan Milošević was elected President of the Presidency of the Socialist Republic of Serbia on 8 May 1989. Following the adoption of the new Constitution of Serbia and multi-party elections, he was elected President of Serbia on 26 December 1990, and re-elected to this post on 20 December 1992. In December 1991, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ was appointed a Deputy Prime Minister of Serbia.
- The political situation in Kosovo became increasingly divisive following 89. the first moves to revoke Kosovo's autonomy, and the imposition of "special measures". Serbia took complete control of Kosovo's police, courts, as well its educational, social and economic policy and the choice of official language in the region. Throughout late 1990 and 1991 thousands of Kosovo Albanian doctors, teachers, professors, workers, police and civil servants were dismissed from their positions. The local court in Kosovo was abolished and many judges removed. Police violence against Kosovo Albanians increased.

- 90. On 16 July 1990, the League of Communists of Serbia and the Socialist Alliance of Working People of Serbia joined to form the SPS and Slobodan Milošević was elected its President. MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ and NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ both held prominent positions within the SPS. Slobodan Milošević used the SPS majority in the federal and republic assemblies to pass legislation in furtherance of nationalist policies in Kosovo and relied on loyal members chosen from among the SPS main board including MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ and NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ—to implement his policies in Kosovo.
- 91. During this period, the unofficial Kosovo Albanian leadership pursued a policy of non-violent civil resistance and began establishing a system of unofficial, parallel institutions in the health care and education sectors.
- 92. Beginning in June 1991, the SFRY began to disintegrate in a succession of wars fought in the Republic of Slovenia, the Republic of Croatia, and Bosnia and Herzegovina. While the wars were being conducted in Slovenia, Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina, the situation in Kosovo, while tense, did not erupt into the violence and intense fighting seen in the other countries. Nevertheless, many of the patterns of criminal conduct observed in those conflicts were seen again in Kosovo during the period covered by this Indictment. Active hostilities ceased with the signing of the Dayton peace agreement in December 1995. The status of Kosovo was not on the Dayton agenda.
- 93. In the mid-1990s, a faction of the Kosovo Albanians organised a group known as Ushtria Çlirimtare e Kosovës (UÇK) or, known in English as the Kosovo Liberation Army ("KLA"). This group advocated a campaign of armed insurgency and violent resistance to the Serbian authorities, and was the principle Kosovo Albanian organised, armed group conducting operations against forces of the FRY and Serbia.
- 94. In mid-1996, the KLA began launching attacks primarily targeting Serbian police forces, but also at Albanians loyal to the Serbian authorities. In 1996 and 1997, the KLA only consisted of a small group of people who were poorly armed, disorganised, and distributed in small groups with its leadership abroad. Thereafter, and throughout 1997, Serbian police forces responded with forceful operations against suspected KLA bases and supporters in Kosovo and persecution of Kosovo Albanian civilians intensified. The collapse of law and order in neighbouring Albania in 1997 resulted in a greater flow of weapons to the KLA. By 1998, the KLA grew to a group of several thousand members and became more active.
- 95. Beginning in late February 1998, the conflict intensified between the KLA on the one hand, and forces of the FRY and Serbia, on the other hand. A number of Kosovo Albanians and Kosovo Serbs were killed and wounded during this time. Forces of the FRY and Serbia engaged in a campaign against the KLA in the course of which they shelled predominantly Kosovo Albanian towns and villages, engaged in the widespread destruction of property, and expelled civilian populations from areas in which the KLA was active.

- 96. As a result of the ongoing campaign, many Kosovo Albanian residents fled their homes to other areas within Kosovo. The United Nations estimates that by mid-October 1998, approximately 285,500 persons, roughly fifteen percent of the population, had been internally displaced within Kosovo or had left the province.
- 97. In response to the intensifying conflict, the United Nations Security Council ("UNSC") passed Resolution 1160 in March 1998 "condemning the use of excessive force by Serbian police forces against civilians and peaceful demonstrators in Kosovo," and imposed an arms embargo on the FRY. Six months later the UNSC passed Resolution 1199 (1998) which stated that "the deterioration of the situation in Kosovo, Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, constitutes a threat to peace and security in the region." The Security Council demanded that all parties cease hostilities and that "the security forces used for civilian repression" be withdrawn.
- 98. In an attempt to defuse tensions in Kosovo, negotiations between Slobodan Milošević and representatives of the international community were conducted in October 1998. These negotiations resulted in a number agreements being signed. An "Agreement on the OSCE Kosovo Verification Mission" was signed on 16 October 1998. On 25 October 1998, NIKOLA ŠAINOVIĆ and VLASTIMIR ĐORĐEVIĆ signed agreements on behalf of the FRY and Serbia respectively. These agreements provided for the partial withdrawal of forces of the FRY and Serbia from Kosovo, a limitation on the introduction of additional forces and equipment into the area, and the deployment of unarmed OSCE verifiers.
- 99. Although scores of OSCE verifiers were deployed throughout Kosovo, hostilities continued. During this period, international verifiers and human rights organisations documented a number of killings of Kosovo Albanians.
- 100. In a further response to the continuing conflict in Kosovo, an international peace conference was organised in Rambouillet and Paris, France beginning on 6 February 1999. Nikola ŠAINOVIĆ was the political head of the Serbian delegation at Rambouillet. MILAN MILUTINOVIĆ was also present during the negotiations. The Kosovo Albanians were represented by the KLA and a delegation of Kosovo Albanian political and civic leaders. During the peace negotiations in France, the violence in Kosovo continued. In late February and early March, forces of the FRY and Serbia launched a series of offensives against dozens of predominantly Kosovo Albanian villages and towns. The peace talks collapsed in mid-March 1999.
- 101. On 24 March 1999, NATO began launching air strikes against targets in the FRY. The FRY issued decrees of an imminent threat of war on 23 March 1999 and a state of war on 24 March 1999. After the air strikes commenced, forces of the FRY and Serbia intensified their widespread or systematic campaign and forcibly expelled hundreds of thousands of Kosovo Albanians from Kosovo.
- 102. On 3 June 1999, the FRY and Serbia accepted a document of principles towards a resolution of the crisis in Kosovo, which was presented to their representatives to the European Union and the Russian Federation. That document, which was followed by Security Council resolution 1244 (1999), provided for a political solution to the Kosovo crisis, including an immediate end to violence and a rapid withdrawal of forces of the FRY and Serbia and the deployment of international civil and security presence in Kosovo under United Nations auspices.

On 9 June 1999, the Military Technical Agreement was signed between 103. NATO, and representatives of the VJ and the MUP, providing for the withdrawal of all forces of the FRY and Serbia from Kosovo. Under the terms of the Military Technical Agreement, the NATO bombing campaign against targets in the FRY would terminate upon the complete withdrawal of forces of the FRY and Serbia. On 20 June 1999, KFOR, the Kosovo Force, announced that the withdrawal of forces of the FRY and Serbia from the territory of Kosovo was complete.
