The Office of the Prosecutor:

Mr Vincent Lunny

Counsel for the Accused:

TRIAL CHAMBER II (“Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”);

BEING SEIZED OF “Veselin Šljivančanin’s Defence Motion For Variation of Word Limit”, filed on 16 February 2007 (“Motion”), in which the Defence for the Accused Veselin Šljivančanin (“Šljivančanin Defence”) requests authorisation to exceed the word limit of 60,000 words outlined in the Practice Direction on the Length of Briefs and Motions¹ (“Practice Direction”) for its Final Trial Brief;

NOTING that the Šljivančanin Defence submits that in view of the large amount of evidence relating to Veselin Šljivančanin and the number of issues that it needs to address, it is unable to meet the prescribed word limit requirement, and requests the extension of the limit to 90,000 words;

CONSIDERING that upon request a Chamber may, where exceptional circumstances that necessitate the oversized filing have been shown by the moving party, extend the word limit imposed by the Practice Direction;²

CONSIDERING that the amount of evidence of direct relevance to the criminal responsibility of Veselin Šljivančanin that was adduced in the course of the trial and the number of issues arising out of this evidence can be regarded as exceptional circumstances that warrant variation from the word limit requirements;

CONSIDERING, however, that the increase of the word limit to 90,000 words is excessive;

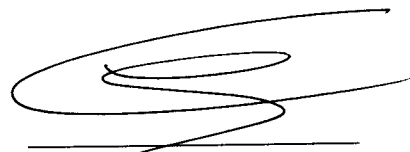

For the foregoing reasons and pursuant to Rule 54 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal and Clause (C)(7) of the Practice Direction;

HEREBY GRANTS the Motion in part and ORDERS the Šljivančanin Defence to file a Final Trial Brief not exceeding 70,000 words.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.

¹ IT/184/Rev. 2, 16 September 2005.

² Practice Direction, Clause (C)(7).
