the Serbian People of BiH. Mičo STANIŠIĆ was ex officio a member of the National Security Council, which was the first de facto executive body of the Bosnian Serb republic. INDIVIDUAL CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Article 7(1) of the Statute of the Tribunal

4. Mičo STANIŠIĆ is individually criminally responsible pursuant to Article 7(1) of the Statute of the Tribunal for crimes referred to in Articles 3 and 5 of the Statute of the Tribunal as alleged in this Indictment, which he committed, instigated, or in whose planning, preparation or execution he aided and abetted.

5. Stojan ŽUPLJANIN is individually criminally responsible pursuant to Article 7(1) of the Statute of the Tribunal for crimes referred to in Articles 3 and 5 of the Statute of the Tribunal as alleged in this Indictment, which he planned, instigated, ordered, committed, or in whose planning, preparation or execution he aided and abetted.

6. By using the word “committed” in this Indictment, the Prosecutor does not allege that the Accused personally committed any of the crimes charged. “Committed” in this Indictment, in the context of Article 7(1), means participation in a joint criminal enterprise (“JCE”) as a co-perpetrator.

7. A JCE came into existence no later than the establishment of the Assembly of the Serbian People in BiH on 24 October 1991 and continued throughout the period of the conflict in BiH until the signing of the Dayton Accords in 1995. The objective of the JCE was to permanently remove Bosnian Muslims, Bosnian Croats and other non-Serbs from the territory of the planned Serbian state by means which included the commission of the crimes alleged in Counts 1-10.

8. Numerous individuals participated as members in the JCE. Each member, by acts or omissions, contributed to achieving the overall objective of the enterprise. Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN each acted in concert with other members of the JCE including, but not limited to Momčilo KRAJIŠNIK, Radovan KARADŽIĆ, Biljana PLAVŠIĆ, Nikola KOLJEVIĆ (deceased), Momčilo MANDIĆ, Velibor OSTOJIĆ, General Ratko MLADIĆ, other members of the Bosnian Serb leadership and leading members of the Serbian Democratic Party (“SDS”) at the republic, regional and municipal levels, leading members of the JNA/VRS in the regions including General Momir TALIĆ (deceased), leading members of CSBs, leading members of Public Security Services (“SJBs”) including Simo DRLJAČA (deceased), leading members of regional and municipal crisis staffs including Radoslav BRĐANIN, and leading members of other civilian bodies within BiH.

9. Members of the JCE implemented the objective of the JCE through and by using the physical perpetrators to carry out the actus reus of the crimes committed in furtherance of the common criminal purpose. The physical perpetrators of the crimes were members of the Serb Forces, which collectively included members of RS MUP, Army of Republika Srpska (“VRS”), Yugoslav People’s Army (“JNA”), Yugoslav Army (“VJ”), Territorial Defence (“TO”), Serbian MUP and crisis staffs not identified above, Serbian and Bosnian Serb paramilitary forces and volunteer units, and local Bosnian Serbs acting under their instruction or pursuant to the direction of the aforementioned forces.

10. Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN, acting through the positions and powers described above, and in concert with other members of the JCE, each participated in the JCE from no later than 1 April 1992 until at least 31 December 1992.

11. Mičo STANIŠIĆ is criminally liable for crimes committed in the period 1 April 1992 to 31 December 1992 in the municipalities of Banja Luka, Bijeljina, Bileća, Bosanski Šamac, Brčko, Doboj, Donji Vakuf, Gacko, Ilijaš, Ključ, Kotor Varoš, Pale, Prijedor, Sanski Most, Skender Vakuf, Teslić, Vlasenica, Višegrad, Vogošća and Zvornik (“the Municipalities”). Mičo STANIŠIĆ participated in the JCE in one or more of the following ways:

- a) Participating in the formation of the Bosnian Serb bodies and forces that implemented the forcible takeovers of the Municipalities and participated in the crimes listed in this Indictment;
- b) Participating in the development of Bosnian Serb policy at the leadership level in order to secure the takeovers of the Municipalities in the targeted territory and the forcible removal of the non-Serb population;
- c) Communicating and co-ordinating with Bosnian Serb political figures at the republic level, particularly Radovan KARADŽIĆ and Momčilo KRAJIŠNIK, as well as political, military and police figures at the regional and municipal levels in order to facilitate the implementation of the objective of the JCE;
- d) Commanding and directing members and agents of the RS MUP who were acting in co-ordination with crisis staffs, the VRS, and other Serb Forces in implementing the objective of the JCE;
- e) Assisting in the co-ordination of joint VRS/RS MUP operations in support of the implementation of the objective of the JCE;
- f) Facilitating the establishment and operation of camps and detention facilities in which Serb Forces beat, killed and sexually assaulted non-Serb detainees;
- g) Failing, while under a duty under the laws and regulations applicable to the Ministry of Internal Affairs to protect the entire civilian population within the areas under the control of Bosnian Serb authorities, to take adequate steps to ensure that RS MUP forces would act to protect the Bosnian Muslim, Bosnian Croat and other non-Serb populations residing in those areas;
- h) Encouraging and facilitating the commission of crimes by Serb Forces against Bosnian Croats, Bosnian Muslims and other non-Serbs by not taking adequate steps to investigate, arrest, and/or punish the perpetrators of such crimes and thereby contributing to the maintenance of a culture of impunity in respect of such crimes, including by participating in sham inquiries concerning these crimes.

12. Stojan ŽUPLJANIN is criminally liable for crimes committed in the period 1 April 1992 to 31 December 1992 in the municipalities of Banja Luka, Donji Vakuf, Ključ, Kotor Varoš, Prijedor, Sanski Most, Skender Vakuf and Teslić ("the ARK Municipalities"). Stojan ŽUPLJANIN participated in the JCE in one or more of the following ways:

- a) Participating in the formation of the Bosnian Serb bodies and forces that implemented the forcible takeovers of ARK Municipalities and participated in the crimes listed in this Indictment;
- b) Ordering, commanding and directing members and agents of the RS MUP who were acting in co-ordination with crisis staffs, the VRS, and other Serb Forces in implementing the objective of the JCE;
- c) Participating in the formation, financing, supplying and supporting of special units in the ARK Municipalities which were engaged in implementing the objective of the JCE or which participated in the perpetration of the crimes listed in this Indictment;
- d) Assisting in the co-ordination of joint VRS/RS MUP operations in support of the implementation of the objective of the JCE;
- e) Facilitating, establishing and/or operating camps and detention facilities in which Serb Forces beat, killed and sexually assaulted non-Serb detainees;
- f) Failing, while under a duty under the laws and regulations applicable to the Ministry of Internal Affairs to protect the entire civilian population within the areas in the ARK Municipalities, to take adequate steps to ensure that RS MUP forces would act to protect the Bosnian Muslim, Bosnian Croat and other non-Serb populations residing in those areas;
- g) Encouraging and facilitating the commission of crimes by Serb Forces against Bosnian Croats, Bosnian Muslims and other non-Serbs in the ARK Municipalities by not taking adequate steps to investigate, arrest, and/or punish the perpetrators of such crimes and thereby contributing to the maintenance of a culture of impunity in respect of such crimes, including by participating in sham inquiries concerning these crimes.

13. The crimes enumerated in Counts 1 to 10 of this Indictment were within the objective of the JCE. Mičo STANIŠIĆ, Stojan ŽUPLJANIN and the other members of the JCE shared a common purpose which amounted to or involved the commission of the charged crimes, and Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN each had the intent for the commission of each of these crimes. In addition, each member of the JCE was aware that his or her conduct occurred in the context of an armed conflict and was part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against a civilian population.

14. Alternatively, insofar as the crimes enumerated in Counts 1 to 8 of this Indictment were not within the objective of the JCE, those crimes were foreseeable consequences of the execution of the JCE and Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN each willingly took that risk.

15. Also in the alternative, if Mičo STANIŠIĆ was not responsible as a member of the JCE, by each of the acts listed in paragraphs 11(a)-(h) Mičo STANIŠIĆ is individually criminally responsible for instigating or aiding and abetting the crimes set out in the Indictment. In this respect the Prosecutor charges Mičo STANIŠIĆ with aiding and abetting in relation to the acts set out in paragraphs 11(a)-(h), and charges that he was aware that the crimes charged would probably be committed and that his acts or omissions would contribute to their commission. In this respect the Prosecutor also charges Mičo STANIŠIĆ with instigation in relation to the acts set out in paragraphs 11(e)-(h), and charges that he directly intended or was aware of the substantial likelihood that the carrying out of the acts and conduct which he instigated would involve or result in the crimes charged in this indictment.

16. Also in the alternative, if Stojan ŽUPLJANIN was not responsible as a member of the JCE, by each of the acts listed in paragraphs 12(a)-(g) Stojan ŽUPLJANIN is individually criminally responsible for ordering, planning, instigating or aiding and abetting the crimes set out in the Indictment. In this respect the Prosecutor charges Stojan ŽUPLJANIN each with aiding and abetting in relation to the acts set out in paragraphs 12(a)-(g), and charges that he was aware that the crimes charged would probably be committed and that his acts or omissions would contribute to their commission. In this respect the Prosecutor also charges Stojan ŽUPLJANIN with ordering, planning and instigation in relation to the acts set out in paragraphs 12(d)-(g), and charges that he directly intended or was aware of the substantial likelihood that the execution of his plans and orders, and/or the carrying out of the acts and conduct which he instigated, would involve or result in the crimes charged in this indictment.

Article 7 (3) of the Statute of the Tribunal

17. Mičo STANIŠIĆ was the highest authority in the RS MUP. His official responsibility included public and state security. In his capacity as Minister of the RS MUP, Mičo STANIŠIĆ had overall authority and responsibility for the functioning of the members and agents of the RS MUP. All members and agents of the RS MUP were subordinate to Mičo STANIŠIĆ. He was responsible for planning and directing all operations of the police and for monitoring the activities of all subordinate officers and units to ensure that his orders were implemented. Stojan ŽUPLJANIN had authority to appoint and dismiss subordinate individuals from duty. He exercised command and control of the RS MUP in the ARK, at times in co-ordination with the VRS, paramilitary forces and volunteer units, the TO, and civilian bodies including regional and municipal crisis staffs.

19. Stojan ŽUPLJANIN had operational control over the subordinated municipal and regional members and agents of the RS MUP in the ARK, including those responsible for the operation of detention facilities. He made decisions for the subordinate units; assigned tasks to subordinates; issued orders, instructions and directives; ensured the implementation of his orders and orders issued by the RS MUP and bore full responsibility for their completion. He monitored the situation in the area of responsibility of the CSB Banja Luka; ensured the passage of information to civilian and military bodies at the municipal, regional and republic levels; and was responsible for the overall operational effectiveness and conduct of the police.

20. In addition to his position as the highest police officer in the ARK, Stojan ŽUPLJANIN represented the police on the ARK Crisis Staff. Throughout its existence, the ARK Crisis Staff worked to co-ordinate and implement the objective of the JCE in the territory of the ARK. After the dissolution of the ARK Crisis Staff, Stojan ŽUPLJANIN continued with the implementation of the plan in his position as Chief of the Banja Luka CSB.

21. Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN both had the authority and the duty to punish or initiate disciplinary proceedings against subordinate members and agents of the RS MUP for any crimes that they may have committed.

22. Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN, as a consequence of their positions of superior authority described above, are each individually criminally responsible for the acts or omissions of subordinate members and agents of RS MUP pursuant to Article 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal. Mičo STANIŠIĆ, as Minister of Interior, exercised de jure and de facto command and control over the members and agents of the RS MUP who participated in crimes alleged in this Indictment. Stojan ŽUPLJANIN, in his capacity as the Chief of the Banja Luka CSB and the police representative on the ARK Crisis Staff, exercised de jure and de facto command and control over the members and agents of RS MUP in the ARK that participated in the crimes alleged in this Indictment. Both had effective control over their respective subordinates.

23. Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN each knew or had reason to know that crimes alleged in this Indictment were about to be or had been committed by their subordinates, and they failed to take necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof. The term “committed” (as used in the context of Article 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal) includes all modes by which a crime may be carried out, including but not limited to planning, instigating, committing or aiding and abetting. Mičo STANIŠIĆ’s and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN’s duties included an obligation to investigate and establish the facts of the crime, to put an end to the criminal activity, to impose appropriate punitive measures on the perpetrator, and to take measures to prevent or deter further criminal acts committed by members and agents of RS MUP.

DEPORTATION and INHUMANE ACTS

37. Between about 1 April 1992 and 31 December 1992, Mičo STANIŠIĆ, in concert with other members in the JCE committed, or individually instigated or otherwise aided and abetted the planning, preparation or execution of the deportation and unlawful forcible transfer of tens of thousands of Bosnian Muslims and Bosnian Croats from the Municipalities to areas under the control of the government of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina (including Travnik, Bugojno, Zenica and Sarajevo), to Croatia, to Serbia and to Montenegro. In the alternative, Mičo STANIŠIĆ knew or had reason to know that said deportation and unlawful forcible transfer was about to be or had been committed and failed to take necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.

38. In order to achieve this result, for which Mičo STANIŠIĆ is criminally responsible, Serb Forces subjugated villages and towns in the areas of BiH which were proclaimed a part of Republika Srpska, and participated with members of the SDS in the disarming of the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population. The towns and villages, as listed in Schedule F, including areas in which the inhabitants complied and offered no resistance, were then attacked. These attacks were intended to compel the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population to flee. After taking control of the towns and villages in the municipalities listed in Schedule G, Serb Forces often rounded up the remaining Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population and forcibly removed them from the area and/or Serb Forces in co-operation with the local Bosnian Serb authorities often imposed restrictive and discriminatory measures on the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population and engaged in a campaign of terror designed to drive them out of the territory. The majority of the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population that remained was eventually deported or forcibly transferred from their homes.

39. Between about 1 April 1992 and 31 December 1992, Stojan ŽUPLJANIN, in concert with other members in the JCE committed, or individually planned, instigated, ordered or otherwise aided and abetted the planning, preparation or execution of the deportation and unlawful forcible transfer of tens of thousands of Bosnian Muslims and Bosnian Croats from the ARK Municipalities to areas under the control of the government of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina (including Travnik, Bugojno, Zenica and Sarajevo), to Croatia, to Serbia and to Montenegro. In the alternative, Stojan ŽUPLJANIN knew or had reason to know that said deportation and unlawful forcible transfer was about to be or had been committed and failed to take necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.

40. In order to achieve this result, for which Stojan ŽUPLJANIN is criminally responsible, Serb Forces subjugated villages and towns in the areas of the ARK which were proclaimed a part of Republika Srpska, and participated with members of the SDS in the disarming of the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population. The towns and villages, as listed in Schedule F.1 through F.6, including areas in which the inhabitants complied and offered no resistance, were then attacked. These attacks were intended to compel the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population to flee. After taking control of the towns and villages in the municipalities listed in Schedule G.1 through G.6, Serb Forces often rounded up the remaining Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population and forcibly removed them from the area and/or Serb Forces in co-operation with the local Bosnian Serb authorities often imposed restrictive and discriminatory measures on the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population and engaged in a campaign of terror designed to drive them out of the territory. The majority of the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat population that remained was eventually deported or forcibly transferred from their homes.

41. By their acts and omissions Mičo STANIŠIĆ committed, instigated or otherwise aided and abetted, and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN committed, planned, ordered, instigated or otherwise aided and abetted, or each by knowing or having reason to know that the crimes were about to be or had been committed by their subordinates and failing to take necessary and reasonable measures to prevent the crimes or to punish the perpetrators, Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN are each criminally responsible for:

Count 9: Deportation, a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY, punishable under Articles 5(d), 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal;

Count 10: Inhumane Acts (forcible transfer), a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY, punishable under Articles 5(i), 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

42. All acts and omissions charged as Crimes Against Humanity were part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against the Bosnian Muslim and Bosnian Croat civilian populations of BiH.

43. At all times relevant to this Indictment, a state of armed conflict existed in BiH.

44. At all times relevant to this Indictment, Mičo STANIŠIĆ and Stojan ŽUPLJANIN were each required to abide by the laws and customs governing the conduct of armed conflicts.

ADDITIONAL POLITICAL AND HISTORICAL FACTS

45. In November 1990, multi-party elections were held in BiH for the first time since the Second World War. There were three main parties, each of which was identified with one of the three principal ethnic groups in BiH. The Party of Democratic Action, (the "SDA"), was identified, in the main, as the party of the Bosnian Muslims; the SDS was identified as the party of the Bosnian Serbs; and the Croatian Democratic Union, (the "HDZ"), was primarily identified as the party of the Bosnian Croats. The SDA won the most seats in the Republic Assembly, followed by the SDS and then the HDZ.

46. The SDS political platform concentrated on the goal of unifying ethnic Serbs in a common state. The election results, however, made apparent the fact that as time went on the SDS would be unable to keep BiH in a Serb-dominated Yugoslavia through democratic and peaceful means alone. As a result, Bosnian Serbs began to organise certain areas of BiH into formal regional structures through the concept of "Associations of Municipalities" which existed under the 1974 Yugoslav constitutional regime. These Associations, although nominally non-ethnic, were the first step toward establishing separate Bosnian Serb governmental bodies in BiH.

47. On 25 June 1991, Slovenia and Croatia declared their independence from the SFRY. The following day, the JNA was engaged in armed conflict in Slovenia, and fighting broke out in Croatia soon thereafter. In the autumn of 1991, the JNA began to withdraw its forces from Croatia and re-deploy them into BiH. Working in conjunction with certain elements in the JNA, the SDS started arming the Bosnian Serb population of BiH.

48. As early as mid-1991, Mičo STANIŠIĆ collaborated with key figures in the Bosnian Serb leadership in formulating and subsequently implementing plans to form a Bosnian Serb MUP.

49. In September 1991, the various Associations of Municipalities were transformed into Serbian Autonomous Districts ("SAOs"), including the transformation, on or about 16 September 1991, of the Association of Bosanska Krajina Municipalities into the ARK. The ARK came to include (among others) the following municipalities: Banja Luka, Prijedor, Sanski Most, Ključ, Kotor Varoš, Teslić, and Donji Vakuf.

50. Around this period of time the SAO of Herzegovina (including the municipalities of Bileća, Gacko, Višegrad), the SAO of Romanija-Birać (including the municipalities of Pale, Vlasenica, Vogošća, Ilijaš), the SAO of Semberija and Majevisa (including the municipalities of Zvornik, Brčko and Bijeljina) and the SAO of Northern Bosnia (including the municipality of Doboj and Bosanski Šamac) were also established.

51. As the war continued in Croatia and it appeared increasingly likely that BiH would also declare its independence, the SDS began in earnest the creation of a separate Serbian entity within BiH together with separate bodies of authority. A separate Assembly of the Serbian People in BiH, dominated by the SDS, was founded on 24 October 1991 as the highest representative and legislative organ of Serbs in BiH. During the first session, Radovan Karadžić made it clear that the Bosnian Serbs were prepared to use force and fear to achieve their ends if they were otherwise unsuccessful.

52. On 19 December 1991, the SDS issued instructions for the "Organisation and Activity of the Organs of the Serbian People in Bosnia and Herzegovina in Extraordinary Circumstances" which provided a plan for the SDS take-over of municipalities in BiH. The instructions included plans for the creation of crisis staffs.

53. The crisis staffs were modelled on similar entities that had existed as part of the Yugoslavian defence system. They were designed to take over the functioning of the municipalities or republic government during times of war or a state of emergency when the Assembly, normally the highest authority of government, could not function. They were comprised of representatives of the police, military, SDS and government organs. When activated, a crisis staff took over all powers of the municipal assembly.

54. On 9 January 1992, the Bosnian Serb Assembly adopted a declaration on the Proclamation of the Serbian Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina ("SR BiH"). On 28 February 1992, the Constitution of the Serbian Republic of BiH declared that the territory of that Republic included "the territories of the Serbian Autonomous Regions and Districts and of other Serbian ethnic entities in Bosnia and Herzegovina, including the regions in which the Serbian people remained in the minority due to the genocide conducted against it in World War Two", and it was declared to be a part of the SFRY. On 12 August 1992, the name of the Bosnian Serb republic was changed to Republika Srpska.

55. On 11 February 1992, a meeting of Serb officials of the BiH MUP was held in Banja Luka. At the meeting, Mičo STANIŠIĆ insisted that it was necessary to establish a separate RS MUP at the municipal, regional and republic level. Stojan ŽUPLJANIN was present at the meeting.

56. On 1 April 1992, pursuant to the Serb Law on Internal Affairs, which was issued on 23 March 1992 and entered into force on 31 March 1992, a separate RS MUP was established with Mičo STANIŠIĆ as Minister. According to Article 28 of the Law, CSBs were established in Banja Luka for the ARK, in Trebinje for the SAO of Herzegovina, in Doboj for the SAO of Northern Bosnia, in Sarajevo for the SAO of Romanija-Birać, and in Bijeljina for the SAO of Semberija and Majevisa. As the Chief of the CSB Banja Luka Stojan ŽUPLJANIN was directly subordinated to the Minister of the RS MUP. The RS MUP was considered one of the armed forces of the RS.

57. On 12 May 1992, at the 16th session of the Bosnian Serb Assembly, Radovan Karadžić announced the six strategic objectives of the Serbian people in BiH. In essence, these strategic goals constituted a plan to seize and control territory, establish a Bosnian Serb state, defend defined borders and separate the ethnic groups within BiH.

58. Between 1 April 1992 and 31 December 1992, RS MUP forces under the authority of Mičo STANIŠIĆ and, in the ARK, also under the authority of Stojan ŽUPLJANIN, acting together with the VRS, the TO and paramilitaries carried out a campaign to disarm the non-Serb population. This campaign was conducted under the guise of action against “Muslim and Croat extremists” or to collect “illegally held weapons”. Although in public statements and publications the disarmament orders were not always expressly directed at the non-Serb populations, in practice only Bosnian Muslims and Bosnian Croats were disarmed. The disarmament campaign was frequently used as a pretext for unlawful armed attacks on non-Serb villages and their inhabitants.

59. At the same time, Serb Forces seized power in those municipalities deemed to pose a threat to the accomplishment of the overall plan to create a Serbian state within BiH. These take-overs initiated a series of events, organised and directed by the RS authorities, including the RS MUP, which by the end of 1992, resulted in the death of thousands and the forced departure of tens of thousands of Bosnian Muslims and Bosnian Croats from those areas.
