                             Do you know the population in your village?
                                  course I do.
                             Did the Serbs have a church there and a demetery?
They had a semetery but not a church.
Can you tell me what happened to those 320 Serbs living in those
