6 17:47:22 Here, you're asking the Serbian authorities to take steps to 17:47:32 provide for the security of a certain witness who was You're expressing your concern for his safety. That 9 17:47:50 with the Prosecution. When they accepted him as a witness, they promised 117:48:00 him a job and an apartment in a foreign country, and they did not fulfill 12 17:48:05 that promise. And the witness first agreed to testify falsely in order 13 17:48:08 to receive these benefits, and then when that fell through, he did not 17:48:14 wish to testify falsely anymore. 17 17:48:26 Again, I spoke about a confidential document without violating 18 17:48:30 the confidentiality of the document or revealing the identity of the 19 17:48:35 witness, so I think that there is no reason for this to be redacted from 20 17:48:38 the transcript either. None of the witnesses that appeared in 23 17:48:52 this courtroom or that the Prosecutor placed on its list of witnesses 24 17:48:58 against me were never exposed to any kind of danger anywhere; not just in 2517:49:05 my case, but in any case where a Serb was accused. 58:117:49:08 I have one more matter. 2 17:49:20 JUDGE ANTONETTI: [Interpretation] I shall respond to what you JIT:49:20 JUDGE ANTONETTI: [Interpretation] I shall respond to what you 317:49:22 have just said on a personal note. If my colleagues disagree with me, 417:49:24 they will take the floor.

517:49:25 Now, it's a question of substance, why at some point for an 617:49:32 ex-witness, who is a protested witness, draw the attention of the Serbian 7 17:49:40 authorities to the identification of this witness and if this should be 8 17:49:46 protected $^{\circ}$.
